Royce Smith Seeks Post Of County Commissioner

By HENRY CANTIN

BELLEVILLE — Mayor Royce E. Smith of Belleville announced Monday that he will seek election as representative for the 24th District on the Board of Wayne County Commissioners.

The 24th District embraces Belleville, Van Buren, Romulus and Sumpter Townships, parts of Westland, Dearborn Heights and Taylor.

Mayor Smith, 54, is currently serving his fourth two-year term as Belleville's mayor.

He resides at 240 W. Columbia Ave., with his wife, Arlene. He is the father of five children.

Candidate Smith, who has had four years experience as a member of the old Wayne County Board of Supervisors, now the Board of Wayne County Commissioners, will oppose Edmund Bizak, who resigned as Romulus Township Supervisor in 1968.

to run for election to the County Board of Commissioners.

Bizak has announced that he will seek re-election.

While a member of the Wayne County legislative board (1964-1968), Smith served as a member of the Health Committee, Legislative Committee, Taxation and Apportionment Committee and Standing Committee.

He was chairman of the Drain Committee and member of the Ways and Means Committee as well as serving on the Civil Service Subcommittee.

Smith cited this prior service at the county level as qualifications in seeking to represent the 24th District.

He was born in Kentucky and has been a resident of Belleville for 30 years. He is presently area marketing agent for the Sinclair Refining Company.

In announcing his candidacy, Smith stated that if elected he would remain in office of mayor until Dec. 31, 1970 adding that programs that he and city council are working on now will be completed by then.

The remainder of his two-year term will be served by Mayor Pro-Tem Ellis A. Amerman, veteran city councilman.

"I will still work for Belleville just as hard and earnestly as I am now. I still believe that I can be of better service to the city by seeking the 24th District representation on the County Board of Commissioners," Smith said.

He also stated that he will not leave Belleville.

Smith added that if he is defeated he will serve out the balance of his present term of office.

"I believe my knowledge of county government will qualify me to serve as a member of the Board of County Commissioners," he said.

Smith was first elected Belleville mayor in May, 1964. He is the only mayor to serve four terms.

Urban Renewal Program Approved; Start Delayed

ROMULUS — The Romulus Township Board of Trustees have adopted an ordinance approving the Urban Renewal Plan and Feasibility of Relocation for the township's initial phase of its Urban Renewal Program.

The board's action followed a public hearing on the proposed Urban Renewal Program's first phase involving approximately 170 acres of land.

The public hearing was held at the Beverly Elementary School April 23.

The Citizens District Advisory Council has also approved the program.

Despite the Township board's approval, Romulus' UR Project may have tough sledding, George Wilhelmi, director of the Urban Renewal office, stated.

The initial phase of Romulus' UR Program involves the expenditure of $6,500,000 of which $4,500,000 is in federal funds. The balance is to be Romulus' share of project costs.

Key to the start of the program rests with the Romulus Community Schools.

Wilhelmi reported that present urban renewal plans hinge on where the school district finally decides to build a proposed new Junior High school.

The Wayne-Beverly Rds. area, site of Romulus' total Urban Renewal Program (general neighborhood renewal program), involves the re-development of 575 acres at an estimated cost of $16 to $18 million dollars with one fourth cost charged to Romulus.

Romulus' share can be paid by voters approving a bond issue, or by credits from installation of sewers, streets and other community improvements in the Urban Renewal area. Cash is not immediately available, Wilhelmi reported.

The location of the proposed junior high school would be a major credit if built in or near the Wayne-Beverly Rds., area, Wilhelmi reported to the township board at its May 4 and final meeting as a township board.

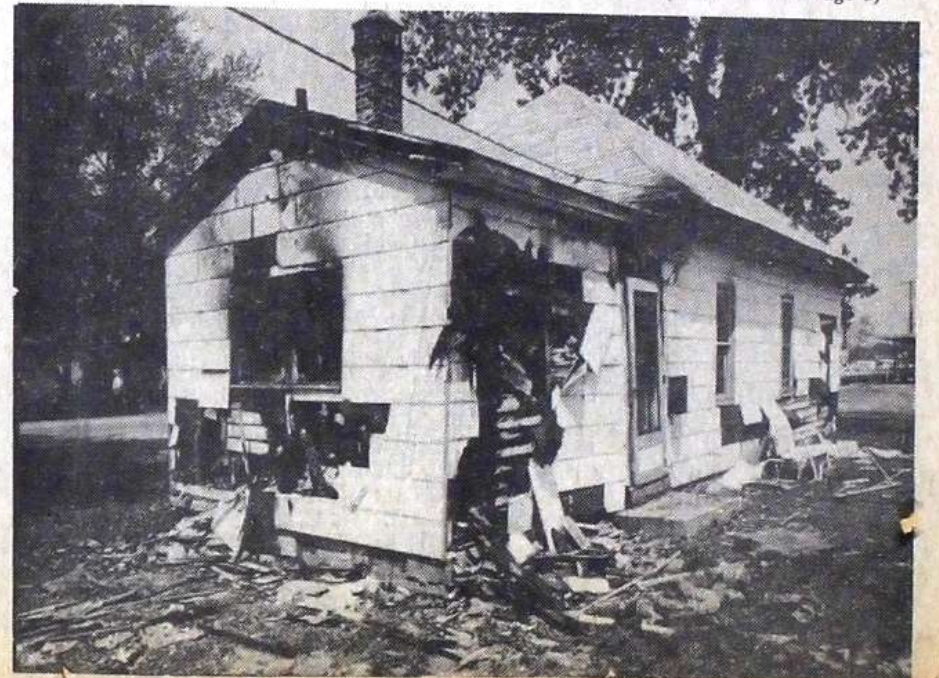

Wilhelmi also stated that the area is the site of Romulus' residential boom and the proposed junior high school would be certainly an "urgently" required school facility.

It was reported that the school board has tentatively selected a site for the new school in the southeast section of Romulus thus bringing it out of reach to benefit the Urban Renewal initial project.

This first phase is basically bounded by Howell Rd., Beverly Rd., Van Born Rd., and Chamberlain St.

The township board has pledged that it will intercede with the school board to re-consider its tentative decision on site for the proposed school, Wilhelmi said.

Motion to approve the ordinance was made by (Continued on Page 3)

FIRE UNDER PROBE — An explosion and subsequent fire at the above residence, located at 35705 Goddard Rd., Romulus, is under investigation by the State Police Fire Marshal. Romulus firemen who responding to the fire on May 13 reported that two gas valves were found open. The house was vacant at the time.

Residence Hit By Explosion

ROMULUS — An investigation into an explosion and fire at the Romulus home is under investigation by the State Police Fire Marshal.

The explosion occurred at a one story frame house, located at 35705 Goddard Rd.

Romulus Firemen spent an hour and forty minutes extinguishing the fire that followed. Firemen reported that they found two open gas valves.

Fire Chief Joseph Crova, reported that windows in the home, vacant at the time of the explosion, were blown 50 feet across the street. The home is located next to an open lot.

Chief Crova summoned the fire marshal to investigate.

The fire report lists Rev. Melvin Wilson of Romulus as owner. No one was injured.

Board Race Draws Three In Romulus

ROMULUS — A political newcomer is taking on two incumbents in the trustee race for the Romulus School Board at the June 8th school election.

Seeking re-election are incumbents Gerald Budd of 12103 Schultz, Romulus, and Garold Hoffer of 34841 Lynn Drive, Romulus.

Both Budd and Hoffer are completing their first terms, having been elected first in June 1966.

Challenging them is Roald Christensen of 35921 Northline, Romulus. Christensen, a native of Romulus Township, is an electrician, and the father of three children.

The Romulus School District voters will elect two trustees at the June election; there are no millage or bond proposals on the ballot.

Vote Return Corrected

ROMULUS — Gene E. Mulberry, who was serving his first term on the Romulus Township Board of Trustees, ran eleventh among 33 candidates seeking election to the seven member City Council in the May 7 Charter Election.

The newly elected city council is to be sworn in on Monday, May 25.

Romulus' City Officials Will Take Oath May 25

ROMULUS — Romulus Township officials became the city of Romulus at 8 p.m. Monday, May 25.

Administrative and legislative members of the Western Wayne County's newest city will take the oath of office Monday evening.

The city's chief executive is Hyle J. Carmichael, a banker in Romulus for 30 years and a newcomer to the political scene in Romulus.

His victory at the May 7 Charter Election was a landslide over his two opponents who were also seeking to be Romulus' first mayor.

A seven member city council, city clerk and city treasurer will also assume their new duties.

Leonard J. Folmar, 28, former aide in the Township Urban Renewal Department is city clerk. Albert Glinki, veteran Romulus resident and businessman is city treasurer.

New city councilmen taking office are:

Jimmie Raspberry, former trustee and now president of city council and mayor pro-tem; William M. Oakley, member of Romulus Community School District prior to this election; Fred Junior Block, newcomer; James C. Stewart, former trustee; Edmund W. Bizak, newcomer and son of former township supervisor Edmund Bizak; Ellis T. Pennington, former trustee; Brookner R. Edwards, newcomer.

The first council meeting will be held on Wednesday, May 26 at the Water Board Building starting at 8 p.m.

The newly elected city officials have scheduled a meeting tomorrow night.

Six File Petitions In Huron Race

NEW BOSTON — A total of six candidates are vying for the two trusteeships on the Huron Board of Education at the June 8th annual election.

Seeking re-election are incumbents Rene A. Campeau of 21700 Dickson, New Boston, and Ralph V. Dugan of 36858 Ellis, New Boston.

Challenging them are Lincoln Ward II of 23883 Clark, Belleville; James Pershing of 19611 Clark, Belleville; Harry Hartsuff of 21850 Bell Rd., New Boston; and Mrs. Harley (Erma) Palmer of 32150 Prescott, Romulus.

Campeau is presently serving as the treasurer of the Huron Board of Education, while Dugan is a trustee on the Board. Both are completing four-year terms.

Ward, a fifteen-year resident of the community, has two sons in the School District. He is active in both the Cub and boy scouts, serving as assistant leader in the Cub Scouts. He is making his first try for public office.

A resident for the past three years, Pershing too is active in scouting, working with Cub Scout Pack 857. He is the parent of five children, three of whom attend the elementary schools, and one of whom is in the junior high. This is his first attempt at elected office.

Employed at the Cadillac Motor Company in Detroit, Hartsuff, is a 30-year resident of the area. The father of two teenage girls and two teenage boys, Hartsuff has spent five years as a Little League Manager and one year as Little League Treasurer.

Mrs. Palmer of Romulus is the only woman seeking election at this time.

In addition to electing two trustees, Huron voters will consider a proposition to transfer the funds presently in a paid-up debt retirement bond fund into the building and sites fund.

Superintendent Byron Antcliff said that the funds had accumulated from residents paying up their delinquent tax bills. He estimated that there is roughly $8,000 in the fund.

The passage of the proposition, Antcliff said, would allow the District to use the money for building and site improvements. As it now stands, the money cannot be spent, until the residents okay the transfer.

Faust Bill May Save Tax Base In Romulus

LANSING — State Senator William Faust (D-13th) today announced that a bill allowing units of government near public airports to continue to tax certain industries on airport property was reported out of the Senate taxation committee.

The measure, HB 3871, sponsored by Representative George Montgomery, chairman of the House taxation committee, would tighten up the definition of a tax-exempt "concessionaire" operating on public airport property. Currently, many of the industries operating on public airport property are paying their taxes under protest.

Faust urged the committee to report the bill out favorably. "A large part of Romulus has been purchased by the Wayne County Road Commission for expansion of Metro Airport. Without further legislation clarifying the qualifications of property tax-exempt concessionaires, the Romulus tax base at the expanding airport could dwindle substantially."

Avis Rent-A-Car has won a court case exempting them from the payment of taxes under the current definition of "concessionaire." If additional industries were to follow suit, it could mean a loss to the Romulus City government and the school government of over half a million dollars.

The bill would limit the definition of "concessionaire" to a person or business who has an exclusive right to render service under contract with the Airport Authority. This would exclude car rental services and any other business that did not have an exclusive right to render services.

Edward Kane, secretary of the state tax commission, said, "The argument in favor of the bill is to insure that property which is owned by a public airport authority and leased for doing business for profit will not be in an unfair competitive position with privately-owned leased facilities."

Senator Faust said that, "The effect of the bill is

Our Readers Express Their Views

To The Editor:

As we approach the second year of our $50,000 "Tax Bonanza", a number of questions remain unanswered regarding the "Progress" of Van Buren Township.

Do you recall that just two years ago our Township Board under the guidance of our supervisor assured us that a 2,000 unit apartment complex, located on the McMullan farm would be the solution to all of Van Buren Townships tax problems. The property was rezoned for use even after a special vote was held, at the taxpayers expense, and the rezoning was defeated.

To this date the only visible "Progress" on our "Tax Bonanza" has been the removing of some fences, digging three stagnant ponds, and the removal of a number of apple trees from McMullans orchard. These things were not done, incidentally, to begin construction of the apartments, but as an attempt to start a golf course on the property.

The public landing on McMullans Point was closed, thereby denying thousands the right to the recreational benefits of our lake. McMullans Point was the only public access to our lake. If you recall, I told you then that this landing would be closed and was called a "Radical" for telling you so.

The question I ask about our "Tax Bonanza" is who then benefits from this? Mr. Volk the developer of the property, still actually owns twelve acres of the total one hundred forty seven acres he purchased under a land contract.

Since the second rezoning of the property, over the protest of the Van Buren Taxpayers, he has purchased an additional forty acres on Beck Rd., from one of our Township Trustees.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has now become a partner with Mr. Volk, has requested and received a third rezoning on the water front acreage of the property.

Our Supervisor, at that time, was able to retire from public office and become a successful business man and trailer park owner. A trustee and part time real estate salesman was appointed supervisor.

The Township Board has decided to extend sewer lines to this vacant property at our expense. The mythical apartments were supposed to rent for $200 to $300 a month and would therefore attract only "high class" people to our community. Now we have a Federal Subsidized Low Cost Housing Project being built in our Township. This will, of course, be for our benefit.

When you consider the past judgments and decisions of our Township Government, I can only ponder the impending question of City Status for our Township. I wonder about WHO BENEFITS? I hope you wonder too.

Rodney A. Bly

To The Editor:

Since the elections in Romulus are now over, I would like to tell you who I will not vote for next time. It is all the people who still have their signs hanging from light poles and nailed to buildings.

To my opinion, an elected official should be a model citizen and what better way to show it than to clean up the town of old campaign posters that hang on poles like dead leaves on a tree.

The speed in which they are hung is amazing. They pop up overnight like dandelions but there must be some official red tape in getting them down.

Thank you for letting me express myself.

To The Editor:

From time to time I've noticed certain articles that are more than just a little to the left. It did bother me, but now worries me.

In the wake of the recent happenings across our nation, I'm impelled to feel that it is now more than a strong minority movement, but almost a majority.

To demonstrate is a gift from the people of the nation to the people of that nation to express their opinions in mass.

I'm now more than just a little tired of people who support the anarchist, who seem to be V.I.P.'s these days, by running rampant, destroying property and speaking such infectious hate as to become a form of a dangerous thinking animal. Each pushing, pushing to see just how far they can go.

The saddest part is those that participate non-violently yet make no attempt to slow the disorder and violence about them. For it is a mockery on them to be used in this way.

It is time for change all right, but not in the despairing form it has grotesquely taken. We must stop appeasing each separate sect with demands that are radically ridiculous.

Let's stop feeding the fire that agitators feed on. We must back laws before our institutions are mere rubble of a smoldering battle ground.

The power of the press is immense. Even a small tribunal to a metropolitan daily. Let's not become followers of a mood but use pro-con in editorials rather than lose ourselves by following a new tide because it may have its "benefits."

Fire Hits Romulus Home

ROMULUS — A fire of undetermined origin heavily damaged a Romulus apartment and injured a man and his wife early Sunday morning.

Taken to Wayne County General Hospital suffering from burns were Alfred Wilson and his wife, Betty. Their three children, Larry, 6; and pre-schoolers aged four and one and one half years old, escaped unharm.

The fire broke out at 8 a.m. in a front room of the apartment which is part of another and adjacent dwelling. One of the children awakened the parents.

Wilson tossed his children out of a first floor window. He suffered cuts in the right arm and burns. His wife, it was reported, has second and third degree burns on shoulders, head and face.

When news of the fire spread, neighbors initiated a fund drive and a search for living quarters for the family.

Mrs. Joyce Tkachuk, member of the Mt. Pleasant Elementary School's PTA is spearheading the drive. She can be contacted by those who wish to assist at 941-1467.

Renewal

Joseph Wallis and supported by Trustee Jimmie Raspberry, now president of the newly-elected city council.

A roll call vote showed that Township Board all approved adopting the ordinance except Trustees Gene Mulberry and James C. Stewart, who is now a city councilman.

Mulberry's No vote was due to the uncertainty of the proposed site for the new junior high school, Wilhelm reported.

Romulus Okays Black Studies

ROMULUS — The Romulus Board of Education voted earlier this month to make a black studies course required for all the District's high school students.

The Romulus School Board made its decision after considering the proposals submitted by the black high school students. The Board's vote was unanimous.

The courses in black studies will be substituted for a semester course in American history. The students will continue to be required to take an additional semester of American history.

The black studies course will be given this fall provided that there is sufficient student interest and provided that qualified black studies teachers can be hired, according to District sources.

The Board's decision came two weeks after members of the Black Student Movement at Romulus gave the Board a list of ten proposals.

The Board accepted all proposals including a call for more black teachers and counselors, the creation of a student relations committee, and courses in black studies.

The District has a 20 percent enrollment of black students among its 5500 student population.

Schoenfeld-Reitz Wed

Martha-Mary Chapel Is Setting For May Vows

A honeymoon in Florida and a cruise to the Bahamas followed the May 2 wedding of Susan K. Reitz of Wayne and Richard J. Schoenfeld of Belleville.

Approximately 150 guests witnessed the exchange of vows and rings at the evening ceremony held at the Martha Mary Chapel in Greenfield Village, Dearborn. Pastor D.P. Nelson of St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Wayne, officiated the ceremony.

MRS. RICHARD J. SCHONFELD

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. F.R. Reitz of Greenbush Road, Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Schoenfeld of Michigan Avenue, Belleville.

FOR THE Spring ceremony, the bride wore a gown in the empire style in silk organza and lace. A fitted bodice of Chantilly lace featured a bishop collar and bishop sleeves with a wide cuff. Appliques of the lace were repeated on the A-line skirt and on the detachable chapel train.

A lace, petal headpiece accented with pearls held the bride's short, bouffant veil and she carried a cascade of white roses and orchids.

Miss Peggy Barbeito of Detroit, served as maid of honor for her cousin, and bridesmaids were Miss Marcia Wood of Westland, Miss Candy LaLonde of Westland, and Miss Charlene Yaquinto of Detroit.

They all wore empire gowns of lace and chiffon designed with bodices of white lace with high collars and fitted sleeves. A band of moss green satin defined the waistline and the skirts were of light avocado green chiffon. To complete their ensembles, each carried a basket of contrasting roses, carnations and baby's breath.

JOHN JARRETT of Belleville carried out the duties of best man and ushers were Steve Short of Midland; Dan Higgs of Wayne and Steve Reitz of Wayne, brother of the bride.

Witnessing the ceremony, Mrs. Reitz wore a coat and dress costume in pale pink with matching accessories and a corsage of deep pink rosebuds. Mrs. Schoenfeld also chose a coat and dress ensemble, hers in aqua, with a corsage of white rosebuds.

The reception honoring the newlyweds was held at Koth's Colonial House, Taylor.

Both the former Miss Reitz and her bridegroom are graduates of John Glenn High School, Westland, and he recently returned from Vietnam where he was with the armed forces.

ALL AROUND THE TOWN ... with Lee

A Pat On The Back

TWO YOUNG men from our community are due for a big hand from all of us for their part in the successful kick-off of Michigan Week in Belleville. Ed Gielinski and Dave Wenzel, seniors and athletes at B.H.S., took time out from their last few weeks of school to devote to co-ordination of Saturday's Youth Day which they co-chaired (a day when one of the biggest regional tracks meets was being held at their school.)

The pair put together one of the best Youth Days our town has ever seen, assembling kids at Victory Park for an 11:30 parade through the city. Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Brownies, Little Leaguers, 4-H members, and Belleville High Bandmen marched up Main Street to the bridge, then did an about-face and, literally, swept the town clean on the return to Five Points.

With litter bags donated by local orchards in hand, they picked up debris all along the route and then filled a waiting truck with contributions from Belleville's litter bugs.

The high school jazz band was on hand to welcome them back to the park, playing until two while dozens of hot dogs and gallons of soft drinks were handed out to participants. Ed and Dick took over the K.P. detail, too, as they manned roasters full of the all-American 'delicacy.' Our community churches made the roasters available while area merchants came through with weiners, buns, condiments, pop, cups, and napkins.

And to complete their anti-pollution theme for the day, there was a clean-up detail of local youngsters who helped the co-chairmen leave the parkgrounds in ship-shape condition.

Meets Kinfolk

A TRIP TO the south came to an end May 8 as Vicki Barnett and little daughter, Liisa, returned home after a month-long absence. Leaving April 7, they motored to Athens, Georgia for a visit with relatives in the area. Marge Roberts, who made the trip down with her daughter and granddaughter, flew home a week later.

The two Michigan visitors called on Liisa's great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith and Mrs. F. C. Griggs, all of Athens, then took her for her first introduction to her great-great-grandmothers, Mrs. Effie Bost in Athens and Mrs. Candace Smith of Columbia, Tennessee.

There were also lots of aunts, uncles and cousins to look up before they left for home. Vicki's cousin, Linda Watts, took a plane south and then make the motor trip homeward with her.

Rainbow Theme Chosen For Rochon-Dwornik Vows

Bridal attendants in rainbow hues preceded Gloria Ann Dwornik to the altar of St. Anthony's Catholic Church April 3 as she approached with her father to become the bride of David Lee Rochon.

Father Raymond Skoney presided at the double ring nuptials at six o'clock in the evening with some 150 guests in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dwornik of 44780 Robson Road, Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rochon of 21565 Wilmet Road, Belleville, are parents of the young couple.

The bride's cousin from Romulus, Carol Haines, was maid of honor in an orchid frock fashioned with long chiffon sleeves and a toe-touching skirt. The high-necked bodice featured a velvet bolero in deeper orchid. A matching velvet bow secured her shoulder-length veil and she carried a colonial arrangement of carnations tipped in orchid.

Wearing identical ensembles were Cynthia Dwornik, the bride's sister, in green; Pat Rochon, the bridegroom's aunt from Allen Park, in yellow; and another sister, Nancy Dwornik, in pink.

Junior attendants were Cindy Sliwa, the bridegroom's cousin, gowned in orchid, and Gary Dwornik, the bride's brother.

GERALD ROCHON was his brother's best man and ushers were another brother, Sam Rochon; Gary Haines of Romulus, the bride's cousin; and Jack Rochon of Allen Park, the bridegroom's uncle.

Stroganoff Dining

Dinner parties are "in" and so is beef stroganoff. The taste is popular, and no wonder, with tender strips of juicy beef sirloin steak, resplendent in sour cream. This entree gives the hostess an opportunity to tailor it with a personal touch by adding poppy or caraway seeds, red wine or whole cherry tomatoes.

R.H.S. Classmates Meet For 10-Year Reunion

By Pearl Morris
Phone WH-1-1187

Members of the Romulus High School Class of 1960 and their husbands and wives (numbering 120) attended the 10-year Reunion held Saturday night at the Colonial House on Telegraph Rd. The class group enjoyed 7 p.m. dinner which was followed by the presentation of awards and dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., to the music of the "Blue Notes." Coming from the farthest distance were Pat Rushlow Godwin and her husband from Richmond, California and David Laine and wife, from Nashville, Tennessee.

Awards were presented at the reunion to: Toni Gatney Sabo and husband for having the most children (five); to Karey Ray Tally and husband, for being married the longest (10½ years); Ruth Saple Board and husband for being married the shortest time (this month); Bruce Hill and wife, for having an anniversary date closest to the reunion (May 16); and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kreyger, couple with youngest baby (3½ mos.).

Mrs. Gertrude Wilkin is now residing with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lenore Beaudoin at 12051 Aston St. Mrs. Wilkin, who formerly lived next door at 12061 Aston, was forced to sell her property to make way for the new highway which will be coming through that area.

Funeral services for a former long-time Romulus resident, Miss Essie Cook, 93, were held Sunday in Dallas, Texas. In late years Miss Cook (sister of the late Mrs. August (Gertie) Gamder of Romulus) had spent her winters in Texas with her adopted daughter and niece, Mrs. Philip (Esther) Warner, and family of 3715 Ingersol, Dallas. She flew to Michigan to spend summers with Grace and Mary Tabor on Riggs Rd., Belleville. Miss Cook passed away Thursday morning.

Julia Hill, 93, of Lincoln Park passed away suddenly Friday at a Taylor convalescent home, where she had been a patient in recent weeks.

A reunion of the Romulus High School Class of 1955 is being planned for Sunday, June 7, at Lower Metro Park. Class members and their families are invited to participate. Each family is to bring their own picnic basket for noon lunch in the Ellsworth Picnic Area of the park.

In case of rain on June 7, the reunion will be held on June 14. For further information phone Elsie McIntosh (941-2831) or Larry Minak (941-1148).

Girl Scouts from Romulus Troop No. 114 attended the "Springboard 70" campout held at the Huron Valley Girl Scout Camp at Linden, Michigan over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lehna of Walnut St., had as weekend visitors her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Johnson of Erie, Pennsylvania. The Johnsons were anxious to make the acquaintance of their newest great grandchild, Donna Lehna, 7 months, and also visit with their other great granddaughter, Denise, 2½ years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sell of Willis Rd., announce the birth of a daughter "Lori Lynn" born May 6 at Garden City Hospital. The infant weighed 8 pounds, 1 ounce

The past year has seen

Association activities and involvement in Community affairs has never been greater.

The Romulus
Homeowners Association is again an organization in which you can take pride as a member.

In the forthcoming election, we look forward to gaining officers and directors

"We the citizens of Romulus do hereby establish this free, democratic and non-political association for united citizens action for civic betterment".

Circus Held At Hayti

ROMULUS - P.T.
Barnum might not have tabbed it the Greatest Show on Earth, but even that was a matter of opinion when the Cub Scouts of Pack 830 presented their own Circus recently at Hayti School.

Complete with costumes,
there was a Side Show, Peep Show, Animal Act, Games of Skill, Parades, Calliope Music, and last, but not least, the Clowns. Directing the activities under the Big Top was Ring (Cub) Master Jack Rarick.

A freak Show featured a set of Siamese Twins (Tommy Rarick and Kirk
Hudson), a Wild Man (David
Long), a Bearded Lady (John Klempert), a Fat Lady,
(David Meyer), and a Tall Man (Scott McKay).

What is a circus without clowns? Clowns were Dale Maitland, in a hula hoop costume and Mike Buggy in his polka-dot suit along with Mike Kaczinski in his dad's clothes, as a Hobo, and Steve Lasacco in a suit of many colors, provided lots of action.

Center Ring attractions were a Tight Rope Walker, balancing act and a ferocious Tiger Act. Rick Zanitz cracked the whip to make a pair of orange striped
"beasts" go through their paces. (Who'd have thought poodles would have put up with that?) The final act was Organ Grinder, Jon
McEachern with his trained Monkey, Tony Suessine, billed as the "Great Jon and Jocko."

Publicity chairman for the Pack, Mrs. Nolenne Suessine, credits for the boys and their parents for making the circus a success. She gave special plaudits to the mothers of Den 5 who popped and packaged over a hundred bags of popped corn.

on the Citizens' Coordinating Committee. Motion carried.

Motion by Muse, and supported by Schweigert, to adjourn. Motion carried.

THOMAS HOPKA,
Secretary

VB Civic Association Holds Meet

ENTERPRISE — The Van Buren Civic Association's general meeting to elect officers and Board Members was held May 13, at the Belleville High school.

Retiring Chairman James Borst opened the meeting detailing the achievements of the Association this past year.

He also thanked the officers and board members for their cooperation and wished the Association continued success. He then turned the meeting over to Donald Carlson, chairman of the nominating committee for the annual election.

Phillip Eller, of 13135 Lake Pointe Pass was elected chairman of the year of June, 1970 to June, 1971. Other officers and directors elected are listed elsewhere in this edition.

The new chairman suggested ideas and plans for the coming year, and emphasized more participation of the general membership.

One important plan was to have open township Board meetings in order for citizens to express their views rather than have matters approved by the township board and the meeting adjourned and then the board asking if there are any questions of the people attending their meeting.

The association's board for the coming year is represented by people in every area of the township. Each one has a duty to get people in their area to become involved to make the township a better place in which to live.

It was great to see representatives of the Belleville High School Government Class at the meeting.

"We have been fortunate to also have them attend our monthly board meetings which are held the first Tuesday of each month at the Belleville High School at 8 p.m. in Room 102," an association official stated.

After refreshments, served by Mrs. James Borst and Mrs. Phillip Eller, the meeting was adjourned.

'Lion' Escape Adds Interest At Gordonier

ROMULUS — A lion escaped at Gordonier School last week. During a trip around the world that featured costumes, native food, displays, safaris, art, dances, tour guides and speakers, the "lion" housed in Mr. Cannon's African Village fled the scene in panic.

The other wild animals in Mrs. E. Rogers' First Grade room behaved themselves very well, not one goldfish, hamster, rabbit, parrot, dog or guinea pig got away.

Maybe it was the smell of coffee and nut bread coming from Mrs. Stella Bunnell's Third Grade room that drove the poor beast wild with hunger; maybe it was the rice and banana bread from Mrs. Lois Avery's room; it could have been all that Thai music and dancing that Mr. V. Sinsiri had taught the folks in

Mrs. Roberta Mills' Third Grade that finally drove him to bolt.

Anyhow, bolt he did, right under the coat rack and into whatever limbo lurks under coat racks and no amount of coaxing could bring him forth. He didn't even care that he missed the costumed boys and girls in Mr. Z. Kuryliw's Fourth Grade Room.

All day and not a hiss nor purr was heard from that cat, until about time for school to be dismissed when he put in an appearance just in time to hear his own eulogy. Mrs. Carol Renton gathered him up and headed home with him where he could rest and recuperate from his ill starred role of "lion." Who wants to be a wild animal anyhow, when he's just a pussycat at heart?

Belleville Star Triple Winner

Pettus Wins Track Regional

Belleville's versatile junior, Garrade Pettus single-handedly produced three gold medals and a silver in leading coach Ken Head's Tigers to their first Class A Regional championship in recent years last Saturday.

Pettus, who also has earned letters in football and basketball, accounted for 22 of his team's 35½ points. The host, Belleville, had a three-point margin of victory over their nearest rival, Wayne Memorial, which had compiled 32½.

In the field of 16 Class A schools, following the leaders were the two Ann Arbor schools, Pioneer and Huron with 23 and 22½, respectively, and Livonia Franklin, which finished fifth with 18.

Pettus set a regional high jump record when he cleared 6 feet, 5¼ inches to claim the gold medal in that event. He was also first in the long jump with a leap of 21 feet, 10 inches and tops in the high hurdles when he finishes with a 15 seconds performance.

Pettus took a second in the low hurdles with a time of 20.5.

"He's great," said coach Head commenting on Pettus' performances. "And with another year of competition ahead of him, we're expecting even greater things to come."

Belleville also received a record-shattering first place performance from half-mile Mike Fant who turned a 1:55.3 to take the event. He also qualified for the state finals.

The only other Belleville trackman to advance to state competition is Larry Merritt who picked up four medals. Merritt tied for second in the high jump with a 6 feet, 1 inch effort, was also tied for third in the pole vault event with 13 feet, 2 inches and finished fourth in the low hurdles.

The Class A State Finals will be held on Saturday at the University of Michigan.

Belleville will also play host to the members of the Suburban Six Conference Meet today (Wednesday). The field events will begin at 4 p.m. with the finals scheduled for 7 p.m.

In dual meet competition last week, Belleville got by Plymouth 61-57 as Pettus claimed four of his team's eight first places, winning both hurdle events as well as the long jump and high jump.

Fant tied a school record when he finished the 440 with a 50.4. Other first places were contributed by Jon Cross in the 2-mile run (10:10) and Lonnie Clark (4:41) in the mile.

Belleville's Dale Kaulitz, Dave Lorentson, Al Vandecar and Fant went a 3:33 to capture first in the mile relay.

WAY TO GO — Belleville's Garrade Pettus uses the Fosbury Flop, a style of going over the barrier backward, to set a regional high jump record, at 6 feet, 5¼ inches. Not only did the junior track star claim gold medals in the high jump, long jump, and low hurdles but his individual performances produced 22 points that clinched the Class A regional championship for Belleville Saturday. Pettus, along with teammates Mike Fant and Larry Merritt were among local athletes who qualified to compete in the State Finals to be held on Saturday at the University of Michigan.

Franklin Favored To Win WW

Though they dropped a dual meet match to nonleague rival, Garden City West, Livonia Franklin appears to have the talent to retain the Western Wayne Golf crown.

Franklin, winner in the three of four years the high school tournament has been held, proved that they will again be strong contenders Friday by placing ahead of the six challengers at the recently held Class A Regionals.

The Western Wayne, co-sponsored by the Associated Newspapers, will be conducted on the familiar course of Salem Hills on Friday at 10 a.m.

Along with the defending champ and Garden City West will be teams representing Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Belleville, Cherry Hill and Garden City East.

"Sure, I feel we're going to be tough again this season," said Franklin coach Bob Visser. "But West also looks strong and they beat us in the Dearborn Invitational recently. They could do it again."

"But our boys are looking forward to defending the title and I think it's going to be a good meet to watch," said Visser.

Franklin will have only one, Steve Brzys, back from last year's championship squad. The Patriots, however, are getting consistent games out of Randy Adams, Dean Alexander and Duane Scott.

West's Dick Kitzman feels, "we are definitely contenders."

"After comparing results in our recent meets with Franklin, I have to say that we should be up there on top," said coach Kitzman.

West has back in its lineup the Western Wayne medalist of the past two years, Ron Smith. But Smith has been struggling because of a broken wrist. He broke it prior to the season and only two days before competition did he shed the cast.

Smith, who fired an 84 at the regionals, will team with Jim Slabaugh, Pat Ruddy and Mike Dunn in hopes of unseating the Livonia school.

Though they trailed their rivals at the regionals, East's Ralph Davis and his Panthers aren't ready to concede victory to anyone.

"They (Franklin and West) should be considered the teams to beat, but anything can happen and who knows."

That was the sentiment expressed by the other coaches and, only after Friday's Fifth Annual Meet, we will all know.

Plenty Of Silver For Trackmen

Though they missed out on the gold rush, Huron's trackmen did manage to come away with three second place performances to qualify for the State Class B Finals.

Coach Lee Smeltzer received a silver effort from his speed relay team of Dave Edge, Bill Roupe, Thel Dregansky and Ed Smith who ran a 1:34.8 for the event and was second to Gabriel Richard.

Edge also will have a crack at the "B" state title in the 220 and the low hurdles after finishing second in both events with a 23.4 and 21 even, respectively.

The Class B State Finals will be held at Michigan State University on Saturday.

Today the Chiefs will travel to Carlson to compete in the second annual Huron Conference meet. Though there is little hope to win the team title, the Chiefs should come back with individual league champs.

Last week Huron captured first place in the Second Division of the Mason Invitational.

Smith was a triple winner as he won the dashes in 10.3 and the 220 in 22.8 in record-setting time. He also teamed with Edge, Roupe and Dregansky to claim the speed relay crown.

Smith was runnerup in the broad jump competition, leaping 20 feet, 1 inch.

Edge placed fourth in two other events, the 220 and the low hurdles while Joel Richert was fourth and Jeff Reeves was fifth in the mile run and long jump, respectively.

Moms Hold Meeting

A meeting to help the Little League baseball program will be held on Wed., May 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Little League stadium. All women who are associated with the Belleville-Van Buren Little League are welcomed to attend.

The gals hope to form a "Little League Helper's Club".

EYEING HIGHER HEIGHTS — Though he finished third in the pole vault, Belleville's Larry Merritt managed to qualify for the state finals. Merritt also won regional medals for his second place performance in the high jump and his fourth place in the low hurdles.

Peterson Tosses No-Hitter In Debut

A near perfect game, that's what Belleville-Van Buren Little League fans were treated to on opening day last week. And, offering the treat was the Braves' hurler Dan Peterson who shut out the Cards, 9-0, in the inaugural contest.

Peterson threw a no-hitter, but walked one who was later erased at second in an attempted steal. Dan faced only 18 batters.

Also perfect in the opener was Steve Haverank who batted four for four.

Other Little League scores recorded in the opener: Dodgers over the Pirates, 6-2, winning pitcher Herby Green. Over in the American League, the Yankees nipped the Indians 4-3 with Joe Church blasting a home run. Winning pitcher was Dale Phaffier while the White Sox routed the Red Sox 14-0 as Paul Vas turned in the shutout.

At Wayne Memorial High Stage Set For Second All-Area Track Meet

The Second Annual Associated Newspapers "All-Area" Track Meet will be staged on Friday, May 29 at 6 p.m. at Wayne Memorial High School.

The meet, co-sponsored by the Wayne Jaycees, is designed to select the candidates for the mythical All-Area track team. It is opened to all high school trackmen in the area covered by the Associated Newspapers.

"In the past we had had problems selecting our All-Area candidates, so the coaches and the ANP sports department decided to set up a meet whereby any boy may challenge another to the All-Area designation," said Tom Mooradian, sports Editor. "And this is one meet where you produce or you're left out."

The winner of the meet, aside from the All-Area title, will also be awarded a trophy.

An athlete may enter as many events as governed by the rules of the Michigan

Romulus Hosts Twin Valley Track Meet

Though they have no thoughts of upsetting defending league champ, Ecorse, Romulus and coach Wayne Schimming are plotting to snatch a few medals away from the downriver track powerhouse when the league members convene to battle for the championship.

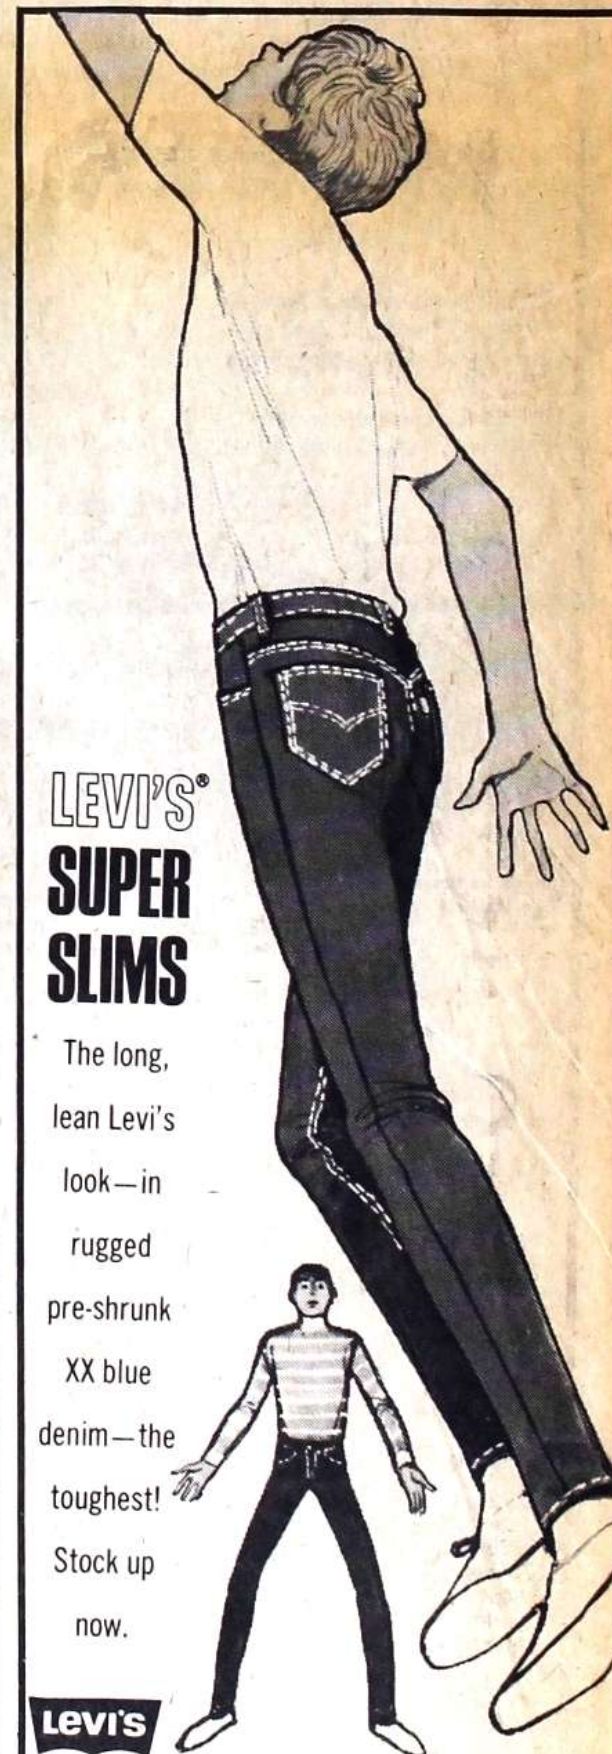

Romulus is the host this year to the thinclads from Ecorse, Rouge, and Willow Run. The teams enter the finals tonight at 5:30 p.m. after competing yesterday in the preliminaries.

Setting All-Area Track

The inaugural Associated Newspapers All-Area Track Meet last year was spiced with controversy. All firsts usually are. And to iron out some of the difficulties we faced last year we got together last Friday with coaches Bill Pinnell (Garden City West), Joe Grasley (Cherry Hill) and Bill Hawley (Wayne Memorial) to discuss the meet.

And we're glad to report that everything has turned out pretty well.

The All-Area meet will be held on Friday, May 29 with Wayne Memorial acting as host. And we're even able to pass along the starting time — 6 p.m.

But there was one problem we couldn't resolve and left that up to Basil Stevens, the Associated Newspapers' executive editor.

The meet, for those who don't know, was originated last year and was co-sponsored by the Wayne Jaycees. The competition was a means of settling differences of wdom belonged on our mythical All-Area track team. That team in the past was usually a hit-and-miss affair (usually missing) created by the ANP sports department.

Last year, for the first time, we invited schools covered by our newspapers — Belleville, Romulus, Huron, Garden City West and East, Robichaud, Inkster, Cherry Hill, John Glenn, Wayne Memorial and Livonia Franklin — to field any athlete who thought he could win the All-Area designation.

Along with the recognition, the Wayne Jaycees and the Associated Newspapers put up some fancy medals.

And everything appeared to be going on well, except when some of the residents in the cities felt that students who go to private, catholic or any other schools outside the ANP perimeter should be allowed to compete.

Said one Garden City father: "Why shouldn't my son compete for the honor, after all, we live in Garden City and you have a newspaper here, don't you?"

He asked rhetorically, "Why are we punishing the kid?"

I had no answer for him, then.

But, thanks to our exec, I do now:

"We could be opening ourselves up to much more than controversy," said Stevens. "There would be some boys who may try to by-pass their schools and coaches and participate without their approval."

"Boys, for example, kicked off the team for disciplinary reasons could try to compete and we could be in trouble with the Michigan High School Athletic Association," he said.

Once A Spartan ...

High school pole vaulters don't fade away...they go on to star in universities. Anyway, that's what former Cherry Hill star, Bob Karr did.

Last week, Karr provided the Spartans out at Michigan State University with the key to their third place finish in the Big 10 Conference when he placed third in the vaulting competition.

The youth athlete soared 15 feet to do it.

And, apparently, Bobby has "this thing about being a Spartan". As a member of Joe Grasley's team at Cherry Hill he competed under the Spartan banner and now, of course, at MSU, he's still a Spartan.

"Not for long," says Karr. "After this year I'm a Wolverine. I've been accepted in the University of Michigan's School of Dentistry and I'll be heading to Ann Arbor next fall."

Romulus In 1st Place

Ballard Fires No-Hitter

Lee Ballard, whose pitching arm has taken Romulus to the top of the Twin Valley Conference baseball standings, fired his first no-hit, no-run game of his prep career last week as he blanked River Rouge, 14-0.

Ballard, now with a 6-2 record on the season, whiffed six and walked two in giving coach Lowell Johnson's Eagles this crucial victory.

Romulus leads the league with a 3-0-1 record. The tie was called against Willow Run. The game was called because of darkness.

"We have a beautiful crack at the title now," said Coach Johnson. "But we still have to get by Willow Run and Rouge twice and they're still tough."

Romulus will play a double-header against Rouge tomorrow. The Eagles will host the twin-bill.

The Eagles pounded three huge pitchers for 10 hits in game called after five complete innings.

Romulus after a scoreless first frame, scored twice in the second inning, came up with five runs in the fourth and added seven in an explosive fifth.

A bases-loaded triple by Bruce Jackson, scoring John Tororek, Chris Gliniski and Ballard provided the key hit in the fifth. Toporek, in the third, and Ballard, in the second, also rapped three-baggers.

Bill Worden led the assault on Rouge pitchers with two hits, a double and single in four trips, while Ballard also had a single to go along with that triple and finished the day with a perfect two for two.

Leon Janes, who singled and sacrificed, accounted for 4 RBIs.

"LET'S PLAY BALL!" — Last Saturday was the opening day for Little League Baseball in Belleville-Van Buren areas. Above are local officials taking the first pitched ball. Behind the plate is Mayor Royce E. Smith, at bat is State Representative Edward E. Mahalak, and the batter is Chester Wojcie, president of Belleville-Van Buren Little League Baseball Association. In the photo (right) is Walter Hink, township trustee, throwing the first pitch.

Baseball Season Underway

ROMULUS — The Romulus Youth Baseball Association announced this week that their second season is off to a fine success, with approximately 525 boys (35 teams) participating.

Practice started May 9, at all Elementary and Junior High fields.

The first official game will be played June 8 at the Junior and Senior High fields.

"Remember Parents, this is your program. If you have any time that you wish to contribute, assistant coaches and umpires are still needed. The more you participate and encourage your boys the more successful the program. Remember Parents these are your sons. Support them," Association officials.

Tryout Date

The American Legion Post 111 baseball team will have a new manager at its helm when the season opens up next month. Taking over from Jack Malaney is Bob Eisiminger who has played ball with the St. Louis Cardinals.

Eisiminger announced that tryouts for the team will be held on May 23, Saturday at 10 a.m., at Wayne Memorial Field.

"We realize that the high school season is not over, but if there are boys who wish to come over and talk with us about playing for the team they are surely welcomed."

"Everyone is welcomed to try out," said the new manager. Potential players cannot be 19 years old by September 1.

American Legion Post 111 will compete in the 16th District which begins play on June 3rd.

For further information, players should contact Eisiminger at 728-4587.

Romulus Begins Softball Action

Twelve teams will compete for the 1970 Romulus Parks and Recreation Adult Softball championship this season. The league got underway last night.

Games will again be played at 6:30 p.m. on various diamonds in the city.

Heston Candidates

Eleven outstanding athletes who also excel in the classroom were named this week among the 34 in the area as candidates for the 11th Annual "Willie" Heston Athletic-Scholastic Scholarship Award.

Among those from this area who are being considered for the award include Richard J. Mussehl (Belleville High); Ronald F. Pellegrino (Cherry Hill); Rick D. Orlandoni (Garden City East); Robert P. Kobiela (Garden City West).

The recipient of the $1,000 scholarship will be announced after the annual Memorial Parade held in Flat Rock on May 24.

The scholarship was originated by John P. Heston, president of the Michigan Memorial Park who recently passed away.

The winner of the scholarship is elected by the 50-members of the "Willie" Heston Sports Hall of Fame.

Also being considered are Joel F. O. Richert (Huron High School); Mark Magee (John Glenn); Lawrence A. Hurst (Robichaud); Paul F. Seestedt (Romulus); and James R. Green (Wayne Memorial).

The candidates are submitted for consideration by the school's principal and the athletic director using athletic and scholastic achievement as criteria.

Records Crumble At Flat Rock

Joy Fair won the 25 lap feature event for Late Model Stock Cars Saturday night at Flat Rock Speedway, however his old official track record of 13:31 was broken officially by young John Anderson, when he toured the oval in a quick time of 13:09 for a new official record.

Anderson had held the unofficial record of 13:13 set last week but had to await the certification of the speedway's timing clocks. The clocks having been certified during the past week, were ready when Anderson made his first qualifying run, and established the new record.

Fair, the defending late Model Champ at Flat Rock posted a 13:23 for second fast time of the evening, and broke the old record, however the Pontiac, Mich. veteran could not muster enough speed to surpass Anderson's new mark.

Denny Pace of Plymouth, Mich., led the first 13 laps of the feature event with Harold Fair, Danny Byrd, Fran Harden, Joy Fair and Anderson running bumper to bumper behind him.

On the 12th lap Anderson made his move to the outside and tangled with Harold Fair going into the third turn causing a caution flag. Both drivers were able to restart in the rear of the field, and when the green flag dropped it was Joy Fair moving from third to second and Fran Harden moving to third, all getting past early leader Pace, who admitted tiring after leading the first 13 laps.

Anderson moved from last to fourth after the restart and was challenging Harden for third when the checkered flag dropped.

In other Late Model events, Fair won the Dash; Heat Race winners were Iggy Toth of New Boston, Mich.; Ron Miller of Toledo, Ohio; and Denver Nelson. The Pursuit race saw Anderson come from last to win in only six laps.

The Figure 8 Feature event went to Dick Simmons of Plymouth, Mich., followed by Chuck Briggs of Belleville, Lubie Allen of Wayne, and Joe Barham of Plymouth.

In preliminary Figure 8 events Simmons won the Dash, with Heat races going to Frank Loving, Art Lutz, Tony Wozorek, and Don Burnham. The Consolation event was won by Larry Webb, who started last and passed 15 cars on the way to finish first.

Michigan Week Essay-Poster Winners

1st Place High School

I enjoy living in Michigan because:

I love the clear skies above me, the green land beneath my feet, and the blue waters surrounding me. For every one of my moods it seems I have found that there is a bay, lake, river, or stream to satisfy my emotion. Whether it's a crazy, laughing brook, a lazy trout stream, or angry, upset Lake Michigan, I can find it, because my state literally is a "Water Wonderland."

The glacial ice sheet, which at one time covered Michigan, left our state with a beauty mark on its face. A kaleidoscope of color, collage of beauty.

During winter I remember walking through snow fantasies, and building platoons of dancing snowmen. I loved the exhilarating sensation of almost becoming airborne, while combing a crooked part down the side of a mountain with skies. I enjoyed the spring innocence, showering me with flowers, and then picking mushrooms that sprouted out of nowhere. The signs of summer are most evident when I can no longer see clearly through the tree foliage.

I love trailering in Michigan to a special spot on our western beach-lined coast, where summer scenery is left free and dune grasses grow wild. I enjoy collecting smooth, water carved driftwood, searching for that perfect piece to sit on your desk at home where it's always in sight. I love a restless autumn, when my family and I can gather bushes top-heavy with sweet elderberries for pie, and when hickory nut trees drop their nuggets.

Truly, I enjoy observing the seasons melt, run, and blend into each other. Right now the drowsy spring queen is standing up and shaking out the folds in her gown, and as she becomes more awake, her eyes will open wider and the sun will shine warmer.

I can put out strings and yarn on the lawn, and in the trees purposely for the enjoyment of watching proud blue jays and fat pot-bellied robins carry pieces away to prospective nests.

I am happy living in Michigan, especially when viewing my favorite spectacle, which is observing the birth of a new day or the parting glance the sun drifts away with. Even the most narrow-visioned person, I hope can see the silent beauty in a field, of rainbow-yellow, yet naughty multiplied dandelions or a frozen, stuck-up, wind-swept lake with snow on it.

Walking along the famous dune lands and beaches with a free wind blowing in my face is an ultimate paradise for me. Observing a slowly sinking sunset reaching towards the horizon over a body of water and seeing the reflections drawn is a total freedom experience in itself.

Our state seal has pictured a rising sun over a lake reflecting a man with his hand raised in peace, the other arm holding a gun in symbol of defending our country. Freedom. A beautiful state, all around us, a wanderer's pathway, freedom and peace about you. Indeed, if you seek a beautiful peninsula, look about you.

I enjoy living in Michigan because of the variety of life. I love the way the winters can be as cold and exciting as Switzerland. Then the summers appear with life and sun and you might for an instant believe you were in Florida. But the spring cannot be denied.

It seems that each time I see a new spring in Michigan the leaves of trees and bushes become a tiny bit greener and the grass becomes a smidgen bit thicker and more tender.

In the fall, when vast fields of wild flowers and weeds turn bronze, it's exciting to go romping through them searching for black walnuts or just hiking and looking for nature.

Suppose you lived in Florida where sun bathing or surfing were the main year round sports. Or perhaps you homed in Switzerland where skiing or sledding were the principal activities.

It seems as if you might get tired of the same sports year round. But in Michigan you can live and let live! You can swing into winter with skiing, sledding or any other winter sport! And when summer comes around you can start all over again with diving, water skiing, golfing and nearly anything else. Michigan is seasoned wonderfully!

One thing more about Michigan that I appreciate is the fact that some parts of it are so ironically civilized and other parts are unexplored and enticing.

What I mean is that in one day you could go from an ultramodern space building with glass walls and plush carpeting to a landscape of rolling hills with apple trees dropped here and there where houses are few and far apart farms. I love Michigan.

"THE WONDERS OF MICHIGAN"

I enjoy living in Michigan because of its beauty, wildlife, and love.

The beauty in Michigan plays a big part. Look around you, you can see beauty. The grass is as green as it can grow. The tops of trees touch the sky.

In your own front yard you see beauty, the birds are playing chase, butterflies are coming out of their cocoons. Woodpeckers are tapping little love notes on trees. The waters sparkle blue like crystal.

But, most beautiful of all, flowers are blooming. The beautiful sunny days awaken the tulips and lilacs. But these are just spring and summer beauties.

Winter beauties are just as beautiful. The snow is soft and light, the smell of Christmas pine trees are all around.

The wildlife in Michigan is also a form of beauty. Walk into a deep green forest and you will see little chases going on between the bucks and does. Squirrels cracking nuts, and fish jumping up from the blue waters. Pretty soon the ducks come out on the water with their babies. The bears catch fish, and raccoons gaily climb the trees at night.

Love in Michigan grows like a natural resource. The people are all friendly and show love for one another. They are always helping one another when problems come up.

In Michigan everyone seems equal to have the same chance even as the animals. That's why Michigan is peaceful, wholesome, and clean, cause love makes it that way.

Cub Pack Presents Circus

ROMULUS -- P.T. Barnum might not have tabbed it the Greatest Show On Earth, but even that was a matter of opinion when the Cub Scouts of Pack 830 presented their own Circus on April 28, at Hayti Elementary School.

Complete with costumes, there was a Side Show, Peep Show, Animal Act, Games of Skill, Parades and last but not least the Clowns.

Directing the activities under the Big Top was Ring (Cub) Master, Jack Rarick.

A Freak Show featured a set of Siamese Twins (Tommy Rarick and Kirk Hudson), a Wild Man (David Long), a Bearded Lady (John Klempert), a Fat Lady (David Meyer) and a Tall Man (Scott McKay).

What is a circus without clowns? We won't know about this one because Dale Maitland, in a hula hoop costume and Mike Buggy in his Polka-dot suit along with Mike Kacynski, in his dad's clothes, as a Hobo and Steve Lasacco in a suit of many colors provided lots of action.

Center ring attractions were a Tight Rope Walker, balancing act and a ferocious Tiger Act. Rick Zavitz cracked the whip to make a pair of orange striped "beasts" go through their paces. (Who'd have thought poodles would have to put up with that?)

A Time To Lead

Michigan's Big Three universities have copped out to the window smashers and marchers at a time when the leadership they have abdicated is needed most. It is left now to the smaller campuses to cope with student anarchy.

Their protests that only a minority of students — and nonstudent radicals — embrace the doctrines of unreason and destruction only emphasize the weakness at the top.

Eastern Michigan University at Ypsilanti was the battleground because there was little joy in overpowering the weak sisters at the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University.

At Ypsilanti, President Harold Sponberg vowed that his university would stay open — and it did.

The University of Michigan knuckled under to demands of black students for a 10% quota by 1973 after a serio-comic performance by President Robben Fleming and the Board of Regents. It narrowed down to a question of how Fleming's apology to the students should be worded.

Michigan State University's Dr. Clifton Wharton publicly deplored violence, the smashing of store windows and the damage to the ROTC quarters on the campus. However, when the students marched on the state capitol, he sent tax-bought MSU buses to give them a ride back to the campus. Students are still camping in tents at People's Park at MSU despite administration statement that they are breaking the law.

Wayne State University President William Keast throws up his hands at an underground student newspaper, known more for its obscene prudities than for its general quality. Here, too, the minority is in charge.

The line was drawn at Eastern Michigan.

Here, the administration and Board of Regents listened to students' demands. The frivolous and illegal were rejected out of hand. Others were granted, some were modified and adopted.

This is reason, not capitulation.

During Ypsilanti's troubled week, police identified revolution-orientated extremists at the eye of the hurricane, the SDS, the Weatherman, the White Panthers. Only 60% of the first 180 arrests involved students, out of a student body of about 18,000.

Student protesters up to this point have been hazy in their demands, swapping slogans for reason and violence for logic. When damage to property and injury to themselves and others fail, they turn to threats.

At Eastern — and at Northern Michigan University in Marquette — there have been threats on the lives of those who disagree. Near the Ypsilanti campus, two persons carrying incendiary materials were arrested trying to break into an electrical power station. Three weeks ago, fire bombs were tossed into a campus building.

Social causes of whatever merit have been drowned out by the noise and violence.

There is growing in the Michigan legislature a block which is determined that the weak sisters will be pinched in the budget for turning the campuses over to the students.

House Speaker William A. Ryan says he hopes appropriations will be based on the needs of higher education and not punitive consideration. How serious the move will be is not apparent.

If the Big Three get the financing they need for 1970-71, they can thank Sponberg and others who proved again that a university is a place to learn.

The line was drawn at Eastern Michigan where leadership is willing to lead.

JOHN P. MCGOFF

Offers New Service

DEARBORN — Now you can apply for social security benefits over the telephone. Louis Levine, social security district manager, urged residents of this area to take advantage of this new service.

"Call first. Call 584-7200. You may save yourself a trip to the office," he suggested. "Most social security business can be transacted over the telephone.

"So try a phone call first. Chances are that we can take care of your social security questions without the need of you to visit the office."

Wayne County General To Expand

DETROIT — Three capital improvements projects totaling $3.3 million have been recommended for Wayne County by the Planning and Capital Improvement Committee of the County Board of Commissioners.

The committee, which has been studying the building needs of the County for more than a year, recommended that:

*$1.5 million be earmarked for improvements in plumbing, electrical equipment and ventilation at the county jail to correct some of the deficiencies cited by the State Department of Corrections.

*$1.3 million be used for renovation and expansion at Wayne County General Hospital. This would be added to $1.1 million already budgeted for improvement of the obstetrical and intensive care departments.

*$460,000 be earmarked as local matching funds for construction of a new cooperative extension service facility which would include a model farm and demonstration growing beds. The County has applied for State recreation bonds funds to help finance the facility.

"These projects have been needed for years," said Commissioner John Lesinski, of Dearborn, D-District 20, planning and capital improvement chairman.

"Even what we've recommended will not correct all the deficiencies at the jail, although it will eliminate those bearings most directly on the safety and comfort of the prisoners. The improvements at the hospital are needed because of the rapid increase in the patient load."

The recommendations must be approved by the Ways and Means Committee and then the full Board of Commissioners which included $4 million for capital improvements in the current budget.

Construction of a second juvenile Court and short-term rehabilitation center west of Detroit already has been designated the number-one building priority by the Board. A $100,000 Federal grant is being sought to finance planning of the $12-million facility.

Planning is also under way for a new 350-bed nursing care facility at Wayne County General Hospital where the present facility is threatened with loss of Medicare and Medicaid funds because it does not meet Federal-State structural standards.

Lesinski's committee also recommended that $45,000 be appropriated for improvement of facilities for jurors in the City-County building and $30,000 for a structural survey of the old county building.

The latter would be preliminary to renovation of the old county building to permit expanded use of the structure.

Karate Chops, Punches Earn Honors For Glenn Girls

By MARY PADEN

Anita Yearout is 16 years-old, stands 5 feet tall and weighs 105 lbs.

You could picture her as a cheerleader against a background of pom-poms.

She can break a cinder slab with her bare hand.

Her best friend and John Glenn High School classmate, Kathy Lee Ramsey has the feminine look of a cameo girl. Picture her dark, curly hair falling softly on a ruffled blouse.

She can wipe out an attacker with a high kick to the solar plexus.

Both girls who live in Canton Township, are members of the Tae Kwon Do Association of America. They attended Karate class and practice three times a week (a total of seven hours) in Ypsilanti. Anita has a brown belt and Kathy, a green belt.

Their instructor is an ex-U.S. Air Force drill sergeant who was stationed in Korea. Edward Sell has a fifth degree black belt, three degrees higher than his Korean wife's black belt. Their five-year-old daughter has a green belt.

Sell barks out his commands in Korean.

"He really scares you at first," Anita said. "He is so serious about Karate. Once my hair fell in my face and I broke my stance to brush it aside. He really yelled at me."

Sell enforces army discipline in his class. There is no smoking, no drinking before practice, no stepping out of line. "You always have to bow to a belt which is higher than yours," Anita said. "It shows respect. You do a lot of bowing. You always bow before you fight someone to show you don't mean them any harm - that it's just practice."

Sometimes practice can be pretty rough. Anita got a serious nose bleed when her sparring partner misjudged the distance and slugged her in the face. "You are supposed to stop before you actually hit someone but it doesn't always work out," she said.

Kathy speaks passionately about Karate. She leans forward on her chair; her eyes narrow.

"It just makes you want to practice harder when you get hurt," she said. "I used to hate Karate but now I love it. The Kata is so pretty and graceful like a dance."

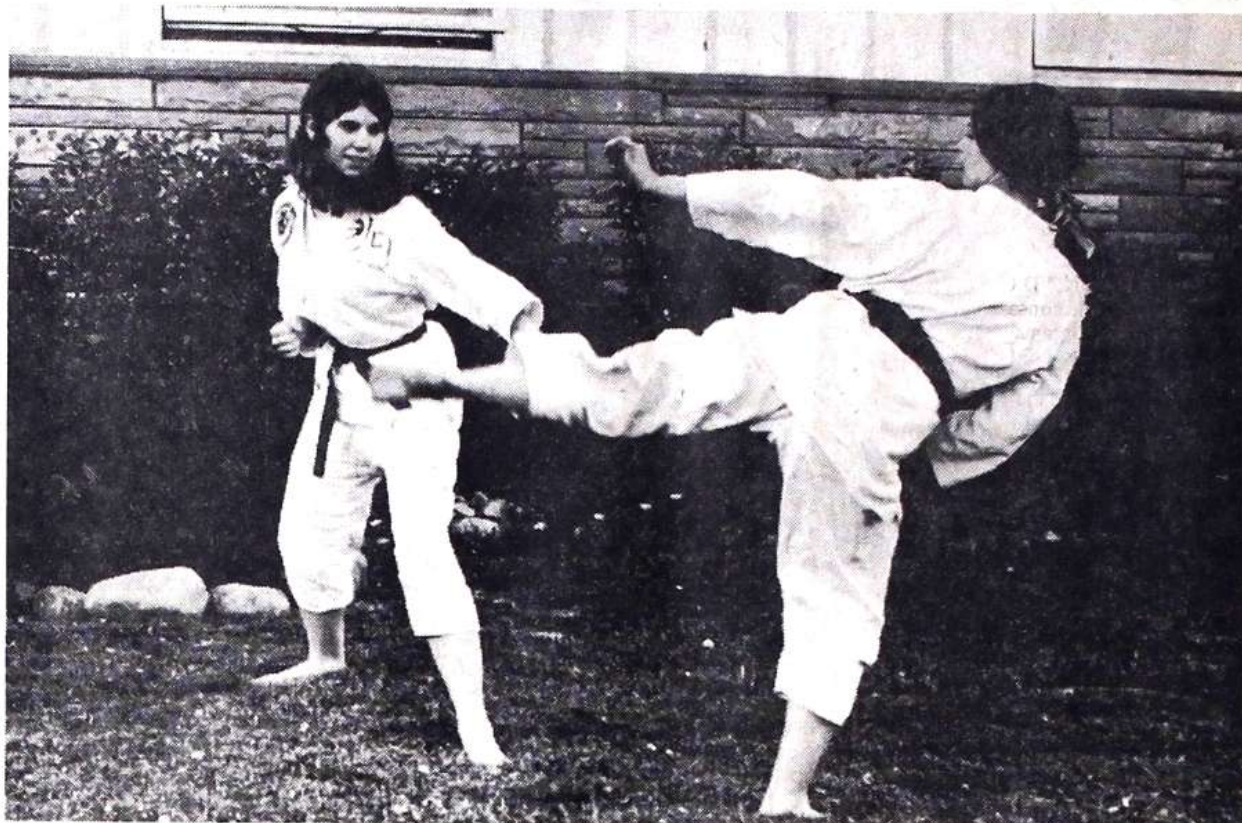

The Kata is a series of forms or stances gone through with an imaginary partner. It looks something like a modern dance.

Anita described Karate as similar to boxing and Judo as more like wrestling. "You don't come into much physical contact with your partner in Karate. It's like a series of punches." Karate is more effective than Judo and Judo takes much longer to master.

The karate student goes through a series of belts and degrees in mastering the skill. The beginner wears a white belt. After a test he keeps his white belt but is declared ready to fight. Next comes the green belt and from there it's two steps to the brown belt. The brown belt goes through four tests before he receives the black belt of an instructor. There are higher degrees in the black belt "but most people are content to stop there."

Anita says she should receive her black belt in about six months. For Kathy it will take about a year.

Six second and third place trophies from Karate tournaments cover the top of Anita's dressing table. She has been studying karate for two years, counting a nine month "vacation". Before that she had one year of Judo.

SHOOT FOR THE KIDNEYS — Anita Yearout attempts to score a point with a high kick but Kathy Lee Ramsey blocks her. Two points makes a winner in a sparring match. The girls demonstrate their skill in Karate on Anita's front lawn.

She began Karate classes in Taylor. "They were very informal. We had a lot of fun and goofed around a lot. We even had class in the swimming pool once. I went back there once after I had switched to Ypsilanti and I didn't like it anymore. The kids weren't learning anything."

She talked Kathy into joining her in the Ypsilanti class. "I got interested in it because of Anita," Kathy said. "Anita is interested in it because she does everything."

The wall opposite the dressing table in Anita's room is covered with horse show ribbons. Across the street is a barn in which she keeps her two horses, a Morgan quarter horse and a Palomino. "I bugged my parents for about three years until they got me a horse," she said. "But she had a crippled foot. So I had to bred and I was sort of surprised to get a palomino." Other room decorations include a Spanish doll, a sombrero and souvenirs of a recent trip to Mexico, and oil paintings she did at school.

Although Anita is the one with all the trophies, it is Kathy who wants to go on to become a karate instructor. Anita says there is not enough money in it. She wants to go into fine arts — sculpture specifically.

The karate class has 15 "serious" students, four of whom are girls. "We started out with about 30 but a lot of them just took their green belt and quit. You really don't know anything about karate until you have your brown belt," Anita said.

Class members are encouraged to compete in Midwestern tournaments which are held several times a year. Anita's most recent trophy is for third place in sparring from the National Karate Tournament of Masters held May 3 at John Kennedy High School in Taylor. The object of sparring is to score two points on your partner — strike two vital points of the body such as the face, kidneys or solar plexus. Since there aren't many girls in karate it is not always possible to pair the same color belts in a tournament. "They might put a white belt up against a brown belt," Anita said, "You just try your best."

rigorous there is also a social side to karate. There are a number of smaller clubs, girl's club, brown belt club and many others, and there are social outings. The girls attended a karate party last week at Metropolitan Beach.

What do two sets of suburban parents think of their daughters' interest in the ancient Eastern art? "My mother said she would like to take it, too," Anita said. My dad didn't believe it at first but he knows I'm always getting into some crazy thing."

Kathy's mother is a little more reluctant. "She hates it. She thinks it's a gimmick to get your money. My dad thinks everyone should know how to defend himself — including girls."

IF SOMEONE ATTACKS YOU — you just break free, hook your leg around and over he (she) goes. Anita Yearout and Kathy Lee Ramsey give a few pointers on what to do if "You're walking down a dark alley and..."

County, Detroit In DeHoCo Negotiations

DETROIT — A proposal that Wayne County takes over operation of the Detroit House of Correction (DeHoCo) is being prepared as a result of a meeting between county commissioners and the Detroit common council.

Eugene A. Sikora, of Detroit, D-District 7, chairman of the special commissioner's committee on jail overcrowding, said a formal lease proposal would be submitted to the common council within two weeks.

Sheriff William Lucas said only younger minor offenders would be transferred from the jail to DeHoCo. He said these prisoners would be unlikely to attempt to escape and should be separated from the older prisoners.

"We have an acute problem at the jail," Sikora told the council. "It is about 500 prisoners over what it can accommodate. We need a facility immediately."

DeHoCo is a minimum security complex of buildings located near the city of Plymouth. It is used for convicted persons serving sentences. The jail is a maximum security building across from Detroit police headquarters. It houses prisoners who are awaiting trial.

A special committee of the County Board of Commissioners met with the council to discuss the possibility of leasing three presently-vacant barracks at DeHoCo for housing prisoners from the overcrowded county jail.

The two groups agreed to enlarge their consideration to the feasibility of the County leasing and operating the entire facility. It would house both city and county prisoners.

Mobile Homeowners Launch State Equality Bid

By DON HOENSHELL
LANSING — Angry Detroit area mobile home owners have launched a statewide campaign for members for a new association "to fight for first-class citizenship."

inception papers here May 14 with the state treasury department to get it started.

"We can tell people all day about our problems, but nothing happens if we don't have the numbers," said

Joseph L. Bush III, of 77 Brook Drive, Belleville.

He was joined on his mission to Lansing by George A. Ferguson, of the Canton Mobile Home Village in Canton Township, who said:

"The biggest problem now is the lack of protection from eviction for no reason at all," Ferguson said.

Mobile home park managers, he said, often require their tenants to buy equipment from their own firms, pay extra fees for deliveries to the door and, in general, dictate excessive terms for staying in the park.

Ferguson said many managers blackball an evicted tenant, forcing him to find an alternative housing while the mortgage payments continue on his mobile home.

Bush said he has twice been served with eviction notices because of his functions with the fledgling association and charged he was blackballed when seeking space elsewhere.

There is a shortage of mobile home space in Michigan, Bush said, enabling park owners to make unusual demands.

He said that some parks charge $900 to $1,000 as entrance fees "and that money is gone the minute you lay it out on the table."

Another problem is the power of managers and owners to evict a tenant after 30 days when most mobile home warranties are cancelled if it is moved within a year.

profit-making trailer parks. Another 100,000 live in mobile homes on private property.

"We think of each one of these Mobile home parks as a community and we want to work and be proud of our community," said Ferguson.

Ford Hosts Officials At Washington Confab

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Drug abuse, law enforcement, pollution control, conservation, recreation, senior citizens and federal grant programs were discussed at the sixth annual municipal officials conference in Washington D.C. last week.

Thirty-five area officials attended the three day conference sponsored by Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District).

Seventy local officials from Ford's 15th Congressional district made the trip, the largest number since he began the conference six years ago, Ford said.

Their schedule included talks by federal officials, conferences with representatives of federal agencies, a trip to Mount Vernon and tours of the capitol, White House and other points of interest.

Ford opened the conference Thursday morning. Speakers that day were John Finlator, deputy director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, on drugs; Melvin Axelbund of the Office of Law Enforcement, on law enforcement assistance; Congressman Wilbur Mills of Arkansas, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, on the welfare-reform program; Rod Symmes, director of the HUD data systems development staff on the use of computers; and James Peterson, also of HUD, on departmental reorganization.

Friday the delegates heard speeches on conservation and the environment, senior citizens and sewer problems.

A Letter To Students' .. Shape Up Or Ship Out

An open letter to a few "students" at Eastern Michigan University:

You've gone too far this time. For your own good, for the welfare of thousands of others as well as the entire community, end the violence immediately—before it's too late.

For the most part you've been "coddled" all of your life, have seldom had to work to earn your next meal. Believe it or not, you are here as a privileged guest of several million taxpayers in the State of Michigan.

Everyone couldn't come here that wanted; you were able to enroll. You're paying less than half of the cost of your "education", but in the long run you'll personally have to "pay" the total bill for your "courses" in street violence.

And don't blame the "pigs" for causing all the trouble. The police would have much rather been somewhere else than "playing games" with you.

To those of you who begged to be arrested—and were accommodated—maybe now it seems like the "in" thing to do. A few of you may have parents who "care"—about you and their nation. In case you forgot to call home and tell the folks you "did your thing" and were put in jail, we'll send a copy of the account of your arrest to Mom and Dad.

Remember, an arrest is not like a hangover—you don't get over it the next morning.

Don't forget to keep a clipping for yourself, too. Be sure and show it to all the people who interview you for a job in this already job-scarce day and age. The clipping will also be nice to show off to your children and grandchildren.

Some of you were chanting "stop the war". Do you think that taking over a city street, provoking police confrontations, causing thousands of dollars in damage, getting yourself thrown in jail—do you think this will stop a war thousands of miles away?

If "peace" be your byword, how do you justify maliciously injuring others from ambush? A stone or rock of the sizes thrown last night, if it hits the right spot on the anatomy, can result in death just as certain and final as an Ohio Guardsman's bullet.

Aren't some of you who were burning barricades in the street, spewing cans, bottles and trash all about—aren't you the same ones so vocal in the "end-pollution, save-earth" demonstrations less than a month ago?

Why are you few dissenters really here? Can't be to better yourself through a college education, for that seems farthest from your mind most of the time.

To the large group of students who "take part" by lending your voice, money and body at the protests; can't you see how you're being "taken", how you're being "used" pure and simply?

Those aren't Halloween pranksters leading you by the nose and that was no dorm party-raid last night—that was for real!

Act your age, students, for the world you're trying to tear down today is the one you will inherit tomorrow.

Safe Boating Month Is A Good Reminder

Governor William G. Milliken has proclaimed the month of May as "Safe Boating Education Month."

He urged state-wide cooperation for obedience to rules and regulations in all phases of water recreation.

Special emphasis was placed on the popular and ever-growing water sport—boating.

Enjoying the utmost in boating pleasure, requires proper boating preparation and a thorough knowledge of boat operation and water safety "musts."

Boating has shown tremendous growth in recent years. So have related organizations. State laws require boat registration and mandatory safety equipment aboard.

Safety afloat begins with a safe boat. A knowledgeable safety-minded skipper is the next most important step to greater safety on the water. So say veteran seamen and experienced water craft operators. In this we heartily agree.

Belleville Lake has had its first reported 1970 water tragedy. A Detroit man, father of five children, drowned near French Landing, Sunday, May 10. The body was later recovered by skin divers.

Experienced members of the Wayne

County Sheriff's Marine Patrol Division reported "negligence" on the part of the boat operator and lack of required equipment aboard—life preservers.

They also reported that the boat used by the three fishermen was over-loaded and that the 10-foot boat was powered by an outboard motor with horsepower above that rated for the water craft.

This water fatality that now leaves five children fatherless, could have been avoided if safe boating regulations had been complied with State Marine Patrol Division officers stated.

It is not for us here to pass judgment on the guilt or innocence of the boat operator. That is up to the local court where the facts of this tragedy will unfold and judgment rendered.

But we do earnestly urge an adherence by all boaters and those who will be operating watercraft for the first time this year to safe boating rules whether fishing or pleasure cruising.

The boating season and assorted water sports will begin full swing in a few weeks.

Water tragedies such as reported last week can be prevented with prudent operation of water craft and awareness of the safety of others.

married woman seeks an abortion. The first bill was altered to inform him, but his consent would not be asked.

Mrs. Beebe said the new version would specify that the husband's consent will be sought.

Abortion Supporters Seeking New Methods

LANSING — Battle scarred Senate strategists will hitchhike on two bills still alive for another try at liberalizing Michigan's 124-year-old abortion law this year.

It was the first move after the once-defeated bill was finally killed in the Senate on reconsideration by an 18-19 vote.

Senator N. Lorraine Beebe (R-Dearborn) said her committee on health, social services and retirement are drafting new language this week to pick up the 20 votes needed for passage.

The big blockade, she said, was the question of the husbands' role at the time a Senators in districts served by Panax newspapers voted 7 to 2 in favor of reconsideration. Affirmative votes were cast by Senators Roger E. Craig (D-Dearborn), John E. McCauley (D-Grosse Ile), Acting Lieutenant Governor Thomas F. Schweigert (R-Petoskey), John F. Toepp (R-Cadillac), Harold W. Hungerford (R-Lansing), Beebe and Bursley. Negative votes were cast by William Faust (D-Westland) and Kuhn.

Give Earth A Chance

By DICK McKNIGHT

There is a movement on in Garden City among a group of citizens called "Concerned Residents," to discredit the anti-pollution drive, particularly as it is impressed upon students in local schools.

According to the 'Concerned Residents,' the movement to clean up the environment resembles, among other things, worship of sun gods, dedication to socialism or something like it, and anti-militarism.

Certainly, there are more people on the environmental clean-up bandwagon today than are involved in any other popular movement. It has become fashionable to be for clean air and water and against pollution.

But fashion is a passing thing, and the sincerity of mass concern for the environment is questionable. Naturally, there is more lip service being paid to environmental clean-up than there is action being taken.

But to be against the clean-up of the environment is to take the worst kind of 'head-in-sand' attitude about the future of the planet. 'Give Earth A Chance,' isn't just another slogan, it carries a very real warning for the polluting nature of man. 'Waste now, pay later' would be an appropriate slogan, too, but the question also is, 'How much later?'

No matter who is behind the battle against pollution, the people who will win or lose the battle are the people of the world. There are no class, race or nationality lines allowed in the fight against pollution. No politics are allowed, either, no matter how much some politicians may ignore that.

The battle is not one for ideological triumph, or political advantage, but for survival itself. It is appalling that so much license can be taken with the movement to keep the earth liveable for future generations.

To this extent, those who would fight the movement to clean-up the environment are as misguided and ill-motivated as those who would take advantage of the movement for their own gain. Free nations of the world will be just as barren and uninhabitable as the communist nations if the planet finally dies from the neglect of its people.

This corner hopes people like the Concerned Residents of Garden City will turn their energies toward ridding the environmental clean-up movement of those who would take advantage of it, rather than railing against the movement itself.

The time has passed for social myopia. We can't afford to waste more time with rhetoric.

A Word Fitly Spoken

His Life Is A Message

By JIM BRADLEY

Bill was right.

Parting is such a sweet sorrow." But for every end there is a new beginning and for every tear, a smile.

This poignant poetic preamble is simply my way of saying goodbye to the many literary friends I've met and shared time with during the past year.

It was just a little over a year ago that I came to Associated Newspapers fulltime after two years as a weekly columnist. Now the time has come when I'll be moving on.

Thus the reference to William Shakespeare comes in handy. It's a very sentimental time when you leave folks you've lived, laughed and labored with. But that time has come for me.

Due to circumstances beyond my control (to be taken in its most literal sense) I'm going into the fulltime ministry. Many of you know that I am an o Baptist minister and my love for people has made my newspaper career that much more enjoyable.

But I must move on to what I feel God would have me do—minister full time to poor and needy souls in this sin-sick world. The members of the church I pastor—Wayne Baptist Temple in Westland—want me as their fulltime minister and are willing to sacrifice financially to make it possible. And I couldn't be happier. Putting words together is fascinating. I love to convey a message, weaving words into a glorious pattern of impressive design. Life is worth living and I look forward to each new sunrise that God sees fit to give us.

I've enjoyed the people that have been so generous with their praise, for they have inspired me. I thank the critical ones, for they have caused me to search my heart and make sure what I write is the truth. In all my endeavors, I strive to challenge, make people think, cause them to shake the dusty cobwebs we all have because of lazy mental habits.

Although there is an art to successful writing, it can also become a drudgery, a dull, listless droning of insipid words and phrases. Sometimes the mental machinery grinds slowly, hindered by the lack of inspiration. Overtimes it flies on wonderful wings of wisdom.

Every literary effort bears the unmistakable imprint of the writer, his personality, feelings and philosophy. He can do nothing else. And, likewise, every person in this world writes a message—by his thoughts, his words and deeds. A new chapter is beginning in my life this week.

And as I minister to people, I'll remember the enjoyable times I've had in writing. But the love of writing is so instilled in my soul, don't be surprised if you see my name on some articles in the future.

Many prominent people have encouraged me to keep writing because they say I have a message to tell. I'm grateful for their kind words and will no doubt express myself as the opportunity arises.

In the meantime, God has given me a message to tell—that He loved the world and gave His Son, Jesus Christ, that we might have life and that more abundantly.

Once again the school election in Inkster is marked by apathy. Three candidates—two in Inkster and one in Westwood—will be home free this year without having to face any opposition.

Charley Bilberry was the only candidate to file for the four-year term in the Inkster Public Schools, while William E. Clark was the only one to file for the two-year vacancy.

In the Westwood Community Schools, Eugene Thompson was the only person to file for a one-year vacancy.

This is not to cast aspersions on these three candidates. In fact they are to be praised for putting in their bids for three tough jobs.

In fairness it must be admitted that two candidates filed for a single four-year term in Cherry Hill and two candidates have filed for the four-year term in Westwood.

Still this is a pitifully small turnout. In other communities several candidates may vie for each available seat on the board.

Looking over the filing statistics for the past two years a disturbing pattern emerges. In Cherry Hill, which could certainly be classified as Inkster's least troubled district, there were races for all seats.

In Westwood, however, there was no race in one contest last year and one this year. In Inkster, there was no race for three seats to be filled last year and two seats this year.

It seems that there is least interest in running for school board trustee in the very districts where most complaints are heard.

Even if a resident, who has a gripe with the school board, feels that he or she would not be elected, his or her candidacy would serve to stir public debate on the things that concern them.

At "meet the candidate" nights and PTA meetings they would have a chance to bring the issues that concern them before the people. And who knows, they might be elected.

At any rate, it is unbelievable that two districts that are regularly racked by turmoil and dissension should lack for school board candidates. And yet that is just the case.

It's much easier to sit in the audience and complain. It is the tougher job to sit on a school board in a poor, racially-troubled district and make the difficult decisions that must be made each week.

Right or wrong, these decisions must be made. I don't understand why a public-spirited citizen with a particular point of view to promote wouldn't seek a school board seat. At least there, he or she would have a vote, as well as a voice in district decisions.

Although there is an art to successful writing, it can also become a drudgery, a dull, listless droning of insipid words and phrases. Sometimes the mental machinery grinds slowly, hindered by the lack of inspiration. Overtimes it flies on wonderful wings of wisdom.

Every literary effort bears the unmistakable imprint of the writer, his personality, feelings and philosophy. He can do nothing else. And, likewise, every person in this world writes a message—by his thoughts, his words and deeds. A new chapter is beginning in my life this week.

And as I minister to people, I'll remember the enjoyable times I've had in writing. But the love of writing is so instilled in my soul, don't be surprised if you see my name on some articles in the future.

Glenn Woodworking Students Nail Down Co-op Opportunity

BY JIM CARRAVALLAH

Students in John Glenn High school's third year woodworking curriculum are experiencing first-of-a-kind instruction in the woodworking trade.

Earl Bryant, teacher of woodworking at Glenn began with a lack of experience in the construction industry.

"In order to make money, you must do a respectable amount of work in a given amount of time," said Bryant. "You can't teach this sort of thing during the year, you must get on the job to learn it."

Bryant's idea was to put students with a good understanding of the mechanical aspects of woodworking into a situation where they were to apply their knowledge with one eye on a contractor's schedule.

"If a boy wastes materials or time while he's working on a project," said Bryant, "I reprimand him. But the full impact of wastage and slowness doesn't hit him until he faces a real contractor who is concerned about these on a dollars and cents basis."

Seniors Wayne Petersen and Chester Rucsko were selected for a pilot program to work with Roger Lambert, a local contractor. The two boys helped Lambert build a $45,000 home on Grosse Isle as their class requirement.

For two weeks they were pushed into the competitive world that cannot be observed in Glenn's shop.

The students were involved in all the aspects of carpentry during construction.

They had to build the home within the two weeks according to Lambert's schedule with some added instruction when they first went on the job, they made the deadline.

John J. Shanahan, consultant for Trade and Industrial Education, division of vocational education, for the state of Michigan, said he does not know of any program like Glenn's in the state, but thinks the idea should be explored.

Instructor Bryant would ultimately like to make the program as part of the woodworking curriculum come next September.

"At that time, we'll send out three students at a time to work for two weeks with Mr. Lambert," explained Bryant. "When they return, they'll write up a report on what they had learned, and will see the grades that their contractor feels they deserve."

The boys will be expected to put in a 40-hour week, with the option to work more hours at a respectable wage.

Lambert has already hired three boys from the class to work with him during the summer at the starting rate of $2.50 an hour.

"This is good pay for a junior in high school," said Bryant, "and it is another opportunity the student receives from the special training."

Bryant has been working with Frank Higgins, principal of Glenn, and representatives from the faculty to determine the feasibility of the program.

"Mr. Higgins is very high on the program," said Bryant, "and so far the teachers say that a student taking part in the program could make up class work he'd miss."

Bryant said that he chose Lambert because of the contractor's continuing interest in the woodwork program at Glenn. "He'd make suggestions about what could be done to improve the woodwork program from a contractor's point of view," explained Bryant.

"When I made the suggestion that the boys work on the job with him, he was very receptive."

Bryant said that he had contracted five or six contractors in the area concerning the program.

Central Air Conditioning Questions Get Answered

A little knowledge about air conditioning can be helpful if you're house hunting, or if you are considering installation of a central system in an existing home. Here are a number of typical questions that may be asked by consumers looking for information on the contemporary topics of air conditioning and total comfort and some answers:

1. What is central air conditioning?

It is "whole house" climate control, provided by one or more pieces of equipment.

2. What is air conditioning? Properly defined, air conditioning involves not just cooling or heating of air, it is a process by which air is cooled (or heated), cleaned, dehumidified (or humidified if necessary), filtered, and moved through an enclosed space.

3. How many homes are centrally air conditioned?

About 1,400,000 families are expected to buy central air-conditioning systems this year, making a total of more than seven million air-conditioned American homes.

4. Is an air-conditioned environment a healthy one?

Yes. One of the most significant air-conditioning benefits is health betterment, and for many reasons. Central units filter out much allergenic-producing pollen and dirt to relieve many allergy and asthma sufferers. Heart patient are healthier without the hot weather stresses that can be damaging. Families sleep better, enjoy better appetites and happier dispositions, and have been found to spend more time together.

5. In addition to health and comfort, are there other benefits?

With less dust and dirt in the home, housewives spend less time scrubbing and cleaning. Paint, upholstery, and draperies retain their freshness longer, which saves on redecorating and cleaning expenses.

6. We hear a good deal about "total comfort" today. What is it?

A total comfort system goes further than summer cooling and winter heating. It may include humidification during the heating season, and year-round electronic air cleaning, as well as odor control. These features create an ideal interior environment.

7. Why have an electronic air cleaner when central cooling systems already filter away so many impurities?

Air cleaners refine the filtration process that is part of central unitary systems; they do a more complete cleaning process. For instance, air cleaners are able to trap such tiny particles as house dust — a vast problem to the allergic — that escape the central system. The best home system includes both the mechanical filters of conventional air conditioning and an electronic air cleaner.

8. The need for dehumidification in summer is well known, but why add humidity during cold weather?

Most heating systems remove too much moisture from the air when they warm and therefore dry it, which becomes a problem because air at low temperatures cannot hold a high enough percentage of humidity. Respiratory ills that start when nasal passages are excessively dry can often be curbed when moisture, through a power humidifier operating in conjunction with the heating system, is installed.

9. What about guarantees on equipment I buy?

To be sure that high standards are maintained, a rigid standards program was established in 1959, and today 90 percent of unitary equipment on the market is regulated by this self-policing, industry-wide plan for consumer protection. A warranty. Seal of certification unit assures you that the manufacturer's equipment will live up to all claims for capacity rating and performance, and that the manufacturer has agreed to subject it at any time to rigid testing by an independent laboratory.

Eastern Michigan Gives Honors To Students

YPSILANTI — Two dozen area students were among the 1800 undergraduates at Eastern Michigan University honored last Wednesday at the 22nd Honors

Convocation at Pease Auditorium.

On the honors list were all those with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better on a scale of 4.0. This

State Police Schedule Memorial Day Duties

Michigan State Police will operate special traffic patrols beginning Friday, May 29, for the three-day Memorial Day weekend, Col. Frederick E. Davids, department director, said.

Davids noted that traffic accidents in the five major holiday periods in 1969 claimed 135 lives, the worst of the tolls occurring during the Memorial Day weekend when 34 were killed.

He added that the department's traffic division experience shows that deaths during holiday weekends average about 25 per cent more than on comparable non-holiday periods. The rate of fatalities per mile traveled is 16 per cent higher.

"Sensible driving practices can contribute to safer holiday motoring," he emphasized, urging motorists to obey speed limits, to give ample notice of maneuvers, to follow at proper distances, to pass only when safe to do so, and to refrain from driving after drinking.

The department's three single-wing planes and its helicopter, weather permitting, will complement daytime patrolling. No pass days will be scheduled for uniform personnel at the department's 59 posts.

District traffic officers and detectives will be used as backup personnel as needed. Check lane activity will be suspended for the period and officer inspectors will augment patrols which will continue through to midnight Sunday, May 31.

Maximum patrol coverage will be provided from 3 p.m. until at least 9 p.m. each day of the holiday period with special attention devoted to highway sections having had accident experience.

Orthodox MacBeth Shows Hilberry's Classic Side

BY HOWARD ALLEN
Panax Amusement Critic

Over the years, the Wayne State University Hilberry Classic Theatre has fostered the reputation of not being afraid to do almost anything to the Bard, so it comes as something of a shock to find a reasonably orthodox "Macbeth."

Director Robert T. Hazzard has a slight tendency to emphasize the macabre, bringing his witches and ghosts on stage at almost every opportunity to look menacing; the spectral world closes every act in fact. But basically, the mood is restrained — lighting effects to resemble lighting the witches first appearance is gentle and unobtrusive.

And James Newell in the title role is not afraid to underplay, at least at the start. He knows how to be quiet; all is not bombast. This pace is not maintained evenly throughout — at one point there is a mad laugh which would do "Inner Sanctum" credit. But there is a tinge of the intellectual, dispassionate in his performance.

There is overplaying enough, however. Lee Smith, as Macduff, for example, is all blood and thunder, scarcely sparing a tear for his murdered family. The play is well cut, rushing to perhaps too headlock a climax, yet preferable to some of the marathon 3½-hour endurance marks occasionally perpetrated. All in all, the effort is quite an appropriate one to present for the many school audiences Wayne plays to on weekday matinees.

If the "Macbeth" production is somewhat spartan, the Hilberry's "Cyrano de Bergerac," is almost rococo. Fifty years ago the David Belasco school of realism said that the stage must mirror real life to the infinite detail, whether or not the play requires it. Belasco once carried this to an extreme by building a room adjoining the set next to the stage, in the mood of the set. It was never seen by the audience, but the cast had to walk through it to reach the stage and Belasco felt this would help them get in the mood.

Thus, Richard Spear sets his second act bakery scene amidst such a splendor of food, only the strongest of wills can keep from immediately desert the Hilberry for the confines of the London Chop House, possibly the only place in town which could match such a Lucullan feast.

Fortunately, John Sterling Arnold's Cyrano is florid enough to cope with the rich set, at one minute soaring with the poets and at the next diving with the burlesque top bananas. At a time of romantic plays, Rostand's effort goes to extremes — it remains completely sensual and totally visual.

"The Lawyer" is a restaging of the Dr. Samuel Shepherd murder case, transplanted from Cleveland to the southwest, and basically presented from the viewpoint of a young, brash and full of beans attorney who drives around like a 16-year-old hot rod and thumbs his nose at a legal establishment.

Like the actual case, broadly parodied here, there is no ultimate answer given as to whether the doctor actually murdered his wife. As in real life, the doctor's denial is put on the record and there is endless speculation as to what really happened, with several alternative viewpoints presented.

Beyond its general flamboyance, the point which will be most remembered about the Shepherd case was the three ring press circus which ultimately led to a Supreme Court ruling that the press had prevented Shepherd from receiving a fair trial by prejudicing the atmosphere.

O'Neill Rips Academy On 'Cowboy' Selection

James F. O'Neil, treasurer of the State Board of Education, has blasted the motion picture industry for awarding an Oscar to the film "Midnight Cowboy."

O'Neil, a Livonia resident, termed Midnight Cowboy, a "sick movie, made by a sick industry that threatens to make us a sick society."

O'Neil said the leading character in the movie violated three of the 10 commandments, committed acts of sexual perversion, and was involved in one of the most brutal acts of violence ever filmed "and then ends up in sunny Florida as his reward."

Speaking last week before members of the American Legion Oscar Brady Post in Battle Creek, the board of education treasurer maintained that Midnight Cowboy violates the basic tenets of America's moral code and threatens the moral fiber of the nation's society.

"To give this picture the Academy Award for excellence is not only an insult to society but an indictment of the movie industry," O'Neil added.

NOT "LONG-HAIR" MUSIC! -- Although three of the quartet in this picture have rather long locks, the music will be strictly "hard rock" according to Lenny Lieberman, sponsor of the benefit dance to aid muscular dystrophy on Friday, May 22. Some 20 rock and roll groups are expected to play for the charity affair which will last from 7:30 p.m. until midnight. Murry Lieberman, manager of Lenny's Music Co., 3024 S. Wayne Rd., Wayne, is requesting donations of food and refreshments from local stores for the worthy cause. Those donating will receive credit for the retail amount of their donations for tax purposes, the elder Lieberman says. Scheduled for the Wayne-Ford Civic Hall, 1661 N. Wayne Rd. in Westland, the dance is hoping to attract hundreds of teenagers and raise an estimated $3,000. Members of "Sin Bad" above include (from left) Gary Howard, Don Anders, Jim Demers and Paul Beebe.

Easter Seals Programs Registering For Summer

Registration materials are available now for the summer program being planned by the Easter Seal Society for crippled children and adults of Western Wayne County.

be served during the first six weeks, in the cooperative agency-school program with the last two weeks being reserved for teen-agers.

A new experimental program, a one week residential camp for mildly handicapped teen-agers, is being planned in cooperation with other Easter Seal

Societies in the Wayne, Macomb and Oakland area. This is in line with the Easter Seal efforts to meet needs as they develop, as well as an outgrowth of the local society's emphasis on year-round social adjustment services as the next step after medical care and the therapies.

Information about the society's summer programs, volunteer openings, registration materials or suggestions for the possible development of special summer programs may be secured from the Easter Seal Center P.O. Box 101 Inkster, 48141 or by telephoning PA 2-3055.

Authority To Move Offices

DETROIT — The Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority will move its main office into new headquarters at 600 Woodward Avenue at East Congress about mid-August of this year.

The Board of Commissioners of the Authority, which has eight parks serving the citizens of the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne, made the announcement.

William E. Kreger, Wayne County's representative on the Board, stated the new office will be in the Law Center Building (formerly the Citizen's Building), now owned by the Detroit Bar Association and being remodeled. The Authority employs 28 persons in its main office and will occupy the 11 and 12 floors of the new building. Until its move in mid-August, the Authority's headquarters remains at 1750 Guardian Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226, where it has been for almost 20 years (since Oct. 22, 1949). The Authority retains its present phone number: 961-5865

Ford Urges Limitations On Presidential War Move

Representative William D. Ford spoke in favor of limiting the President's power to send troops into a foreign country without the consent of Congress in a speech to the House of Representatives, May 7.

Ford said the presence of U.S. troops in Cambodia "contains neither justification or logic." He called the President's rationalization of entering Cambodia to protect American soldiers in Vietnam, a "fantastically complicated exercise in doublethink."

"A far better protection would be to end this madness and bring the troops home," he said.

"Our expressed prupose in Vietnam has been to protect that country from invasions. Now we have become guilty of this same practice with our intrusion across the borders of Cambodia and Laos.

American troops looting a town from which the civilians had been driven. How do we rationalize this?"

Ford said his mail since the troops had entered Cambodia has been "overwhelmingly critical of this nation's role."

Following the President's speech telling of the U.S. move into Cambodia, the White House said calls and letters had shown a 6 to 1 favorable response to the President's decision. However a GOP National Committee spokesman later conceded that the committee had organized a chain response among Republicans asking that favorable letters be sent to the White House.

Congressmen who back Mr. Nixon's policy report that their constituents are evenly divided on the issue.

"The American people are weary of the burden of Vietnam," Ford said. He cited numerous domestic problems, inadequate housing, crime, racial and students unrest, pollution and poverty, which are waiting to be solved "while we sink deeper into the quagmire of war."

"From within and without, our involvement in Vietnam is destroying us as a nation," he said. "The tragedy at Kent University is only another indication of how the war is tearing our society apart.

"How can we so flagrantly ignore the will of the people and still expect them to have faith in our democratic process?"

Ford said it was time for Congress to start asking questions and demanding answers. He discounted the argument that legislators who followed presidential policies were being patriotic. "When I was in the Navy and in the Air Force," he recalled, "I took an oath to follow the orders of the Commander in Chief. When I came to Congress I took another oath that I would support the constitution and perform the duties of an elected representative. Nowhere does the constitution say I must take orders from the President."

He said legislators who claimed to have followed the war policies of both a Democratic and Republican President "had violated their constitutional oath on a bi-partisan basis."

He questioned the Nixon Administration credibility on the Cambodian situation. Four hours before Mr. Nixon's speech on Cambodia, he said, Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan had assured the House that the President had no intention of sending troops into Cambodia. If the Minority Leader was "that badly misled by the President as to what was going on in Cambodia, how can I, as a representative of my people, believe what the President was or is now telling us?"

Anti-Bias Clause Takes Final Effect

DETROIT — A compliance program designed to enforce the equal opportunity clause in Wayne County contracts is in effect, following approval of procedures by the County Board of Commissioners.

The program will be run by the office of human relations, a county department established last year by the commissioners.

Under the program, firms may be declared ineligible to do business with the County if found guilty of discriminatory practices in hiring and promotion. Prime contractors will also be held liable for discriminatory practices on the parts of their subcontractors.

The procedures state in part: "The contractor will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color, national origin, age, or sex. The contractor will take affirmative action to insure that applicants are employed and that employees are treated during employment without regard to their race, religion, color, national origin, age or sex."

Contractors will be required to follow a number of fair employment practices under the compliance procedures. In cases of violation, the office of human relations has the authority to recommend that a violating firm be declared ineligible for a county contract or be sued for breach of contract.

The Board of Commissioners made two amendments in the contract compliance procedures that were recommended by the board's human relations committee.

One amendment requires that a contractor or subcontractor accused of violation by the office of human relations be given a list of the alleged violations at least 10 days prior to a hearing on the charges.

The other change gives an accused contractor or subcontractor the right to appeal findings of the office of human relations to the board of commissioners.

In other actions, the board of commissioners: — Gave preliminary approval to plans for an undercover narcotics squad in the Sheriff's Department. The plan will be up for final approval at the next board meeting May 21. The six-man squad will work with local police throughout Wayne County.

— Concurred in an application for $41,325 in federal funds for operating of a boarding house treatment program for functionally retarded youth by the Wayne County Child Development Center. The facility would be located in Detroit's model city area.

— Approved extension of a youth opportunity program established last year as an employment service program for low-income youth between the ages of 16-21. The $46,303 project budget consists of 80 percent federal funds with the non-federal share being contributed by eight local communities. No county funds are involved.

— Authorized Wayne County Circuit Court to apply for $18,000 in federal funds to help finance an experimental project in which selected offenders would remain free while awaiting criminal trials. It is believed that the program would benefit the accused and their families, and would help alleviate overcrowding at the jail.

The Board of Commissioners also went on record against House Bill 4682, a measure which would change local government's share of the State income tax from 17 percent of net to 13 percent of gross.

Harvey J. Beadle, of Redford, D-District 19, said the bill would have cost Wayne County some $1.7 million last year. Commissioner Beadle is Chairman of the Legislative Committee.

Emergency Ward Keeps Up

By JIM BRADLEY

The Emergency Ward of Wayne County General Hospital, the largest in Western Wayne County, is another department in which that medical institution takes great pride.

Staffed by three crews for around-the-clock treatment, an operating team is available at all times to handle the average 225 cases which are rushed to the ward daily.

In charge of overall operation of the Emergency Ward is Dr. Gerald Stair who works to make it the finest in the county.

"Wayne County General Hospital is the number one emergency stop for this entire area," Dr. Stair pointed out. "The most modern facilities and the availability of specialists 24 hours a day makes this possible."

Dr. Stair noted that Detroit Edison sends all its emergency patients to Wayne County General and all injured persons from Metropolitan Airport are also rushed there.

The department has two trauma rooms, medical wards for male and female patients, and is the only area hospital with a radiologist on hand 24 hours a day to read X-rays.

"People are rushed to our hospital because they want the best treatment," Dr. Stair stressed, adding, "and we are ever improving our total treatment program."

Wayne County General handles upwards of 50,000 crisis cases a year, many of them follow-ups which are treated free. This number is reported to be second only to Detroit's Receiving Hospital.

Wayne County General works closely with the University of Michigan medical doctors and is a training type hospital as compared to Wayne State University Medical School's more academic approach, according to Stair.

The emergency ward director is working hard to keep pace with ever-improving medical achievements and systems of communication. Meeting periodically with police and fire departments of surrounding areas, Stair has worked out plans that will provide the best in crisis case care.

Included in present plans is a request by several Wayne County hospitals for a state grant of $15,000 to install two-way radios to better handle incoming emergency patients.

Under this regional medical program, each hospital would have a two-way radio to communicate with rescue units bringing in accident victims and be better informed about the incoming patient.

"We are ever expanding our knowledge and service," Dr. Stair points out,

END OF THE LINE — A siren wailed through the Ford Assembly Plant in Wayne at 10 a.m. Friday signaling a three minute silence in memory of Walter Reuther. The assembly lines hissed to a halt and most workers simply stepped back from their place. Most of them seemed uncertain as to how to pay tribute to the union leader in three minutes. Reuther was killed in a plane crash in northern Michigan last week.

House Passage Buoy Chances For PCHA

LANSING — Speedy house passage of a bill enabling any of the 23 member communities of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) to drop out stirred optimism among its backers.

Rep. Alex Pilch (D-Dearborn) is hunting for allies in the Senate as the bill reached the halfway point in the legislature.

"I'm more optimistic now," he said. "We were concerned about getting the 56 votes in the House."

The bill passed easily by a vote of 65 to 29, with PCHA community and area legislators splitting 9 to 3 in favor, a healthy margin in view of the controversy.

It would allow member communities to withdraw from PCHA after a vote of the people. Withdrawal now requires a two-third vote of the PCHA board of directors, representing member communities.

Voting in favor of the bill from the area were Thomas J. Anderson (D-Southgate), William R. Copeland (D-Wyandotte), Edward E. Mahalak (D-Romulus), Alfred

A. Sheridan (D-Taylor), Raymond J. Smit (R-Ann Arbor), Roy Smith (R-Ypsilanti), Marvin R. Stempien (D-Livonia), Joyce Symons (D-Allen Park) and Richard A. Young (D-Dearborn Heights).

Opposed were Rep. Vincent J. Pettipren (D-Westland), and Matthew McNeely (D-Detroit).

"They had 40 co-sponsors and that's pretty tough to beat," said Pettipren.

"This bill is going to give local people a voice in affairs of this kind," Pilch said. "I was more concerned about getting it through the House."

He said he had not yet selected a steersman for the bill in the Senate.

Faust Testimonial Draws 800 Friends, Senators

GARDEN CITY — More than 800 'Friends of Faust' turned out Saturday for a testimonial dinner in honor of State Senator William Faust (D-13th District).

Highlighting the evening was the appearance of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Senaroty Sander M. Levin (D-Berkley) and several State Senators of both parties.

Among the Senators attending were George

Senator Hart presented Faust with a resolution passed by the Senate honoring Faust for his community service. The resolution was signed by all 37 of Faust's fellow senators.

The resolution read, in part, "As a Michigan Senator in his first term, Bill Faust achieved a phenomenal record for his distressed school districts....he devoted arduous labor and inexorable application to preparing the many facets of this legislative coup, and won his colleagues concerted support through convincing argument and demonstrating personal commitment."

Senator Hart credited Faust with championing the cause of senior citizens, and with gaining the only direct appropriation for a school district in the state last year (Nankin Mills).

Senator Stamm praised Faust's work on education legislation, and revealed that he and Faust are the two Senate representatives on the special committee working with the House of Representatives in an attempt to finalize a state aid to education bill.

Among the local officials attending were Mayors Royce Smith of Belleville, Gene McKinney of Westland, Patrick Norton of Wayne and Timothy Murphy of Garden City. Mayoral candidates Edward Bivens Jr. and John Mulhern from Inkster, and State Rep. Al Sheridan (D-Taylor) were also in attendance.

School Aid Picture Dim, Administrators Report

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Following the recommendation of a lay committee, dated Feb. 10, 1967, a bond issue for millage was on the November, 1968 ballot.

The outlook for the successful opening of all Michigan schools in September appears gloomy at this time.

This is the consensus of the council of the Michigan Association of School Administrators, including Harry Howard, superintendent of Wayne Community School District.

Howard is chairman of the legislative committee of the state-wide association which represents more than 800 administrators, including 500 superintendents.

Howard, referring to the administrators' support for change in the method of financing public schools, said: The manner in which public schools are to be financed is one of the crucial problems facing every person in Michigan. Local property owners have repeatedly indicated that they will not accept higher property taxes as a means of financing public education."

Howard reported that other educational groups, such as the Michigan Association of School Boards and the Michigan Education Association, agree with MASA that state income tax funds earmarked for education represent a more equitable form of school financing than the property tax.

"MASA has recommended a shift of burden to income tax and a change in the distribution of state aid to public schools from a per pupil allowance to a foundation or classroom unit plan to assure sound educational programs for all pupils," Howard added.

Morley Webb, superintendent of Montabella Community Schools, Edmore, and MASA President, agreed, saying:

"Michigan schools face an unsolvable problem at this time. The problem faced is the fact that local districts are turning down millage increases to finance schools while the legislature is at an impasse in providing a state aid bill which will adequately fund the needs of public schools.

Webb warned that boards of education will find it practically impossible to complete salary negotiations with employees when the state's share remains unknown.

"Last year's record of school districts failing to open in September will look small by comparison if the legislature fails to act," he said.

One of the major hang-ups within the legislature and between MASA and the legislature is the matter of public aid to non-public schools. The association has taken a firm stand against supporting any bill which includes such aid.

As expressed by Robert Hall, superintendent from St. Charles, and a member of the board of directors, "One of the things which has complicated analysis and action on the state aid bill has been the fact that parochial and public school aid have been tied into one bill which has divided loyalty on the part of many legislators."

MASA is distressed because both the governor and legislature have turned deaf ears to its pleas of judging aid for public schools and aid for non-public schools separately on their own merits instead of lumping them together.

No legislative determination has been made concerning increased aid for the 1970-71 year. Therefore, no basis exists for planning of budgets and for opening of school in September.

A continuation of the present formula not only would not provide additional aid, according to MASA, but would actually reduce the state aid per pupil in most districts because of the increase in the state equalized valuation against which deductible millage is applied.

Present state equalized valuation of $35.1 billion is conservatively estimated for 1970 at $37.7 billion. Continuation of the present formula based on this increased valuation would result in a decrease of $30 million in state support for schools, shifting this burden to the local taxpayer.

Wayne Community School District would incur a 7.1 percent decrease in state aid, according to present calculations. Dearborn would lose a whopping 83 percent and most school districts would suffer an average decrease of about 7 percent.

Many cutbacks would be incurred by school districts because of the decrease in state aid, school officials said.

Garden City Gals to 'Play Ball'

It's "play ball" for the gals in the Garden City Parks & Recreation softball league. They'll have a league this season.

And they can thank Sarah Kahanian and Nancy Skinner for it. The two girls rounded up enough gals who were interested in playing.

There will be a six-team league that will play Sunday evenings at Garden City East High's Lighted Field.

Among managers who have stepped forward are Alice Dougherty, Ed Hix and Harold Powers. Game time for the first contest is around 6:30 p.m. and play will continue until after 11 p.m.

Oh yes, the gals will launch the season on June 7.

"Get-me-out-of-this-rut" Blues!

Sure, your husband is great and you love your kids. But it is that time of year when "tired" seems to be the only word in your vocabulary. Don't be discouraged. It's an affliction which strikes each year about this time in near-epidemic proportions.

So "getting away from it all" is just not in the cards. What can you do to bounce back?

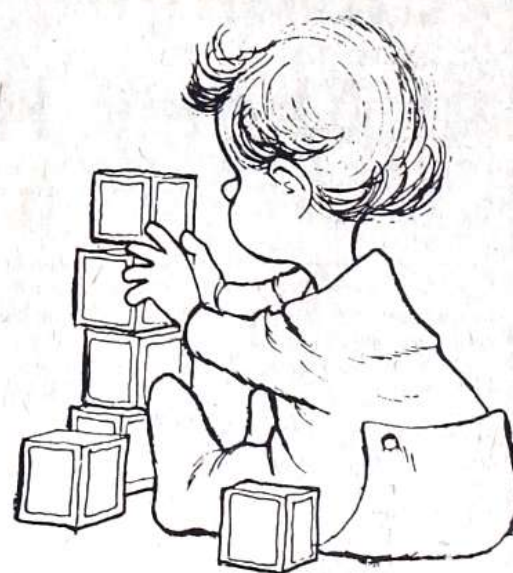

Here is how you can engineer a break in the routine and add a few bucks to the family budget at the same time.

Run a Want Ad, offering for sale some of the valuable but seldom used items around the house. Golf clubs, furniture, appliances, bicycles, power tools, you name it. A Want Ad will help you sell anything.

A lot of nice people will call in response to your ad. You will meet them when they come to look at the item or items you are offering for sale. And the lady you reach when you call to place your ad will be friendly and helpful, and pleasant to talk to.

It's a great way to break the monotony and pick up some unexpected cash at the same time. Oh yes, the cost of the ad is very low, and it is easy to get it into the paper.

Call the Want Ad number below and start a pleasant adventure.

UP Development Project To Begin

Construction is scheduled to start this month on a project that eventually will provide homes for 10,000 people in the copper mining village of White Pine in Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

The announcement was made jointly by James Boyd, New York City, chairman of the board of Copper Range Co., and by Chester Ensign, Jr., president of Copper Range Co., and H.C. Allison, Midland, president of Unlimited Developments, Inc.

Unlimited Developments, Inc. (UDI) was formed in November of 1969 by three Michigan firms: Panax Corporation of East Lansing, publisher of 25 newspapers including the Associated Newspapers, Inc. Alden B. Dow Associates, Inc., Midland, an architectural, engineering and planning firm; and First Central Mortgage Corp. of Saginaw.

White Pine Copper Co., a subsidiary of Copper Range, operates the White Pine Mine, whose 2,700 employees represent the second largest work force in any single operation in the Upper Peninsula.

UDI will develop the planned community to provide critically needed housing and all other facilities for White Pine, which now has a population of only 1,300.

The unusual project is a cooperative venture involving industry, a private business and the federal government.

Copper Range is making the land available for the project, which will encompass about 11 square miles.

UDI will be in charge of all aspects of developing the planned residential areas, commercial center, mobile home park, boat club, golf course, an apartment building and other facilities that will eventually be included in the project.

The government will participate through the Act 235 program which provides for special federal loans for home purchases.

Housing will be of modular construction and provide for a variety of income levels.

The copper mine, mill and smelter at White Pine went into production in 1955 after Copper Range carved a complete new community out of the woods of western Ontonagon County.

White Pine Copper Company's growth has been so vigorous in recent years that the company's biggest problems are recruiting employees and finding homes for them.

Ninety-three percent of the workers at White Pine are commuters. They travel an average distance of 79.3 miles per round trip. The work force is spread among 75 separate communities in 10 counties in Michigan and Wisconsin.

"The production of copper at White Pine has increased from 80 million pounds in 1960 to 157 million pounds in 1969, and we have a capacity level of 175 million pounds per year at the present time," said Mr. Ensign.

The first phase in the development program calls for construction of 250 housing units and the commercial center. Allison described the new town development area as "a magnificent piece of property."

IN MEMORIAM — The flag at Ford's Wayne assembly plant, like the flags at other plants across the nation, was lowered to half mast Friday in memory of union leader Walter Reuther.

Census Visiting Nears An End

Robert L. Slaughter, district manager, reports that the 1970 Census of population and housing is nearing completion in this area, and that in another week the census takers should have visited every residence on their lists.

Legion Announces Poppy Days

The census takers are calling at homes from which no questionnaires were mailed back, as well as at those from which questionnaires were returned incompletely filled out.

Slaughter pointed out that residents can speed up the big count by having the information that is asked for on the form ready to give to the census taker.

The American Legion and The American Legion Auxiliary of Michigan have designated May 21-23 as Poppy Days for 1970. During this time, hundreds of Legionnaires will be on the streets selling the traditional American Legion Poppy.

The small red flowers are made by the handicapped and disabled veterans from throughout the country. The money from the sale of American Legion poppies is used for the service and rehabilitation of veterans and child welfare.

By "wearing a poppy" on Poppy Day, each American can honor the sacrifices made by our servicemen while assisting the living.

He emphasized that all information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is held in absolute confidence under federal law. It is used only to provide summary figures such as totals, averages, and percentages.

The information cannot be examined by any one other than census employees who

NEW LEVIN — Displaying his new and perhaps gubernatorial, image is State Senator Sander M. Levin (D-Berkley), who was in Garden City Saturday to honor State Senator William Faust (D-13th District) at a testimonial dinner for Faust. Levin is a Democratic candidate for governor.
